Greytail Electrocuted

Curious Squirrel Disrupts Power, Rings Fire Alarm

Curiosity proved fatal to a squirrel early Wednesday evening when the inquisitive little rodent electrocuted himself in the Boulevard sub-station of the Central Hudson Gas and Electric Corporation, disrupted electric and telephone service for about eight minutes, and indirectly set off a fire alarm at Hutton's Sanitarium, 172 Pearl street.

'Trips' Breaker

The chaos started at 7:06 p. m. when the greytail climbed a tower in the Boulevard sub-station, came in contact with a breaker and caused it to "trip," it was explained by Arthur W. Buddenhagen, resident manager of Central Hudson.

The Boulevard sub-station feeds the Jansen avenue sub-station, which provides electric service for "about 90 per cent of the city," Mr. Buddenhagen said. Sections of Hurley in the Lucas avenue extension area, fed by the Boulevard sub-station, also were affected, he said.

Causes Alarm to Ring

Power was restored at 7:16 p. m. and while communications were out of service a fire detection device at Hutton's Sanitarium was set off by what was

Beck Sleeps Well, But He's Irked At Benefactors

Seattle, June 13 (AP)—"I go to bed at night and I never wake up until morning . . . I've been in this for 40 years and whatever happens doesn't bother me."

It was Dave Beck, president of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, speaking.

He had called newsmen in to present his side of a controversy over investment of union funds.

Urged to Stay On

But after that had been disposed of, the discussion came around to more personal things.

Such as his decision to retire as union boss, following unfavorable testimony at hearings held by the Senate Rackets Committee and charges of income tax evasion filed against him in federal court in nearby Tacoma.

Beck said he had wanted to retire a year ago but other teamster officials had persuaded him to stay on.

Concern for Wife

He said 95 per cent of his decision to not seek reelection is the ill health of Mrs. Beck.

"My wife reads this stuff and it bothers her. I don't want to go through a continuous dogfight. I've reached the time when I'm entitled to say to hell with it." He pointed out he would be 63 next Sunday.

He predicted "this hysteria" would die down. "You can see what the Supreme Court is doing every time it meets," Beck said, apparently referring to a decision Monday involving use of the Fifth Amendment by a Teamster official.

A newsman asked him if he "felt hurt" over "this ruckus."

Expected Defense

The husky labor leader paused, took a deep breath, and said:

"I don't feel hurt over what happened in Washington but I

Summer School Registration Set

Registration for summer school classes at Kingston High School will be held Thursday, June 27, at 8:30 a. m.

The first session of the school will be Monday, July 1, at 8 a. m.

School authorities pointed out today that one course which should be of interest to many is that of remedial reading.

This course, the spokesman said, is intended for those studentes whose reading ability is below the standard of their grade in school. The course is open to any high school student and, in addition, to anyone entering high school next fall. One class will meet the needs for high school students. One-half unit credit is given for successful completion of the course.

The school official said that since no classes will be formed unless sufficient demand is made, it is necessary that those desiring summer school courses register as early as possible on June 27.

Ellenville Festival Plans County Day Program 29th

Four additional counties in the Catskill Mountain area have been recruited this year to assist in the sale of tickets for the Empire State Music Festival which launches its third season in its massive tent in Ellenville, Thursday evening, July 4. Committees are now being formed in Greene, Dutchess, Orange and Putnam counties to swell the roster of the Friends of the Festival which was organized last year by leading citizens and civic leaders of Sullivan county. The festival site itself is in Ulster county on a mountain top in the Shawangunk range.

County Day will be observed at the festival grounds Saturday June 29, at 2:30 p. m., when it is expected motorcades from the six counties will be entertained by Eugene Glusker, mayor of Ellenville; Harry Resnick, who heads the Catskill Mountain Civic Corporation, one of the principal supporters of the music center, Frank Forest, the Festival's general manager; Jerome Hershon, one of the directors, and county and state officials.

U. S. Craft Is Fired on By Chinese

Reds Claim Units Invaded Waters

Washington, June 13 (AP)—Navy officials described as an isolated incident today the shots fired by a Communist Chinese shore battery at an American plane which they said apparently strayed off course and was damaged slightly.

They expressed the opinion, based on early dispatches, that the incident is not likely to produce any significant military repercussions.

Was Slightly Damaged

The navy announced yesterday that the plane, flying from the carrier Hornet, was "fired on and slightly damaged by Communist Chinese antiaircraft" in the area of the Formosa Strait.

"It appears that the aircraft concerned was to the westward of its plotted position, being about eight miles off the coast when it was fired on," the navy announcement added. It said the plane, otherwise unidentified, was on a routine training flight at the time, and returned quickly to the carrier.

First word of the incident came from Peiping radio, which said in a broadcast heard in London that the Hornet and four destroyers, sailing from Hong Kong, "invaded part of the South China sea within the territorial waters of China."

Charge Intrusion

The Red Chinese version said planes taking off from the carrier "intruded into the Swatow area." Without saying where they came from, the Communists said four Nationalist Chinese planes joined the American

Preliminary Stay Enjoins Picketing at Tunnel Job

A preliminary stay enjoining members of Local 17 from picketing the Cannonsville tunnel job at Lowe's Corners, Sullivan county, was granted by Justice William Deckelman today in Supreme Court pending argument of a restraining motion returnable next Monday.

The contractors moved before Justice Deckelman at Monticello for a show cause order and an order enjoining further picketing by Local 17.

Full argument of the motion will be heard Monday in Albany.

The show cause order was directed against Local 17, which began picketing the job last week.

At a meeting Tuesday night of the Ulster-Sullivan Counties Building Trades Council it was voted to picket the job with council members.

Today it was reported Samuel Doyle, president of the Building Trades Council, would withdraw building trades pickets from the picket line because an investigation revealed nothing unfair on the job.

Such action would leave the job without picketing.

Francis Martocci, who with Jerome Lurie, appeared as counsel for Local 17 said:

Mayflower Reaches Plymouth

Plymouth, Mass., June 13 (AP)—Mayflower II, replica of the original Pilgrim ship, ended her long voyage from Plymouth, England, today.

She entered the harbor shortly after 11 a. m. (EDT), towed by a coast guard craft and surrounded by a big fleet of yachts and other small craft.

Bells Peal Welcome

Her skipper, famed windjamming master Alan Villiers, had furled sails just outside the harbor before attempting the narrow channel up to the mooring basin prepared for Mayflower off historic Plymouth Rock.

Dark skies and hazy weather detracted from the spectacle from a spectator's point of view.

Church bells pealed a welcome as the 92-foot bark appeared around Gurnet Light, marking the harbor entrance.

Mayflower's arrival marked the end of a 5,000 mile, 54 day voyage reenacting the historic trip of the Pilgrims in 1620.

An announcement today from the Rondout Valley Central School Board of Education said that Wednesday, June 26, is the date for voting on a proposed $2,900,000 bond issue for general school expansion in the area.

Plans call for an $1,855,500 junior-senior high school with all modern facilities to accommodate 800 students as the major part of the program.

Other Projects

The remainder of the bond issue, $1,044,500 would be used for:

Purchase of grounds for the junior-senior high, conditioning them and installing outside facilities.

Renovating and putting an addition on the Kerhonkson School.

Building a four-room addition at Marbletown Central School and enlarging the cafeteria.

Putting a two or three room addition on the Accord School.

Harriman Measures Attacked

Governor Certain To Reject Again

Albany, N. Y., June 13 (AP)—Adamant Republicans brushed aside the protests of Gov. Harriman and Democratic lawmakers today to force approval of their own labor benefit bills as the Legislature's special session moved toward a close.

Democrats in the Senate staged an abortive fight to prevent consideration of the GOP unemployment insurance and workmen's compensation bills on the ground that they were substituted unconstitutionally for those sought by Harriman.

In the Assembly, Republicans beat down an attempt to force the Democratic governor's bills out of committee and onto the floor.

Follow Through on Phones

Meanwhile, Speaker Oswald D. Heck followed through on his plan to push the telephone-rate bill through the Assembly, thus underscoring a major policy spit with Senate Majority Leader Walter J. Mahoney.

Heck's action was just a gesture, however, since Senate Republicans killed the measure Tuesday. It would have undercut the chief argument of the New York Telephone Co. for rate increases totaling $55,400,000 a year.

In the Senate, Syracuse Republican John Hughes declared that workers and labor leaders had been "confused and misled" by Harriman's opposition to the jobless-pay bill.

Blames Harriman

"The issue is crystal clear," Hughes said. "Either all the workers of the state are to receive the benefits of this historic bill or they are to be denied them by Gov. Harriman's second veto so that a small segment of the garment industry can escape the imposition of a small additional, equitable tax."

Democratic Sen. Harry Gittleson of Brooklyn branded the GOP the "tool of the special interests." He said the bill was "unfair to the little fellow."

Another Veto Certain

Harriman, who vetoed the Republican labor-benefit bills after they were passed at the regular session, was almost certain to reject them again.

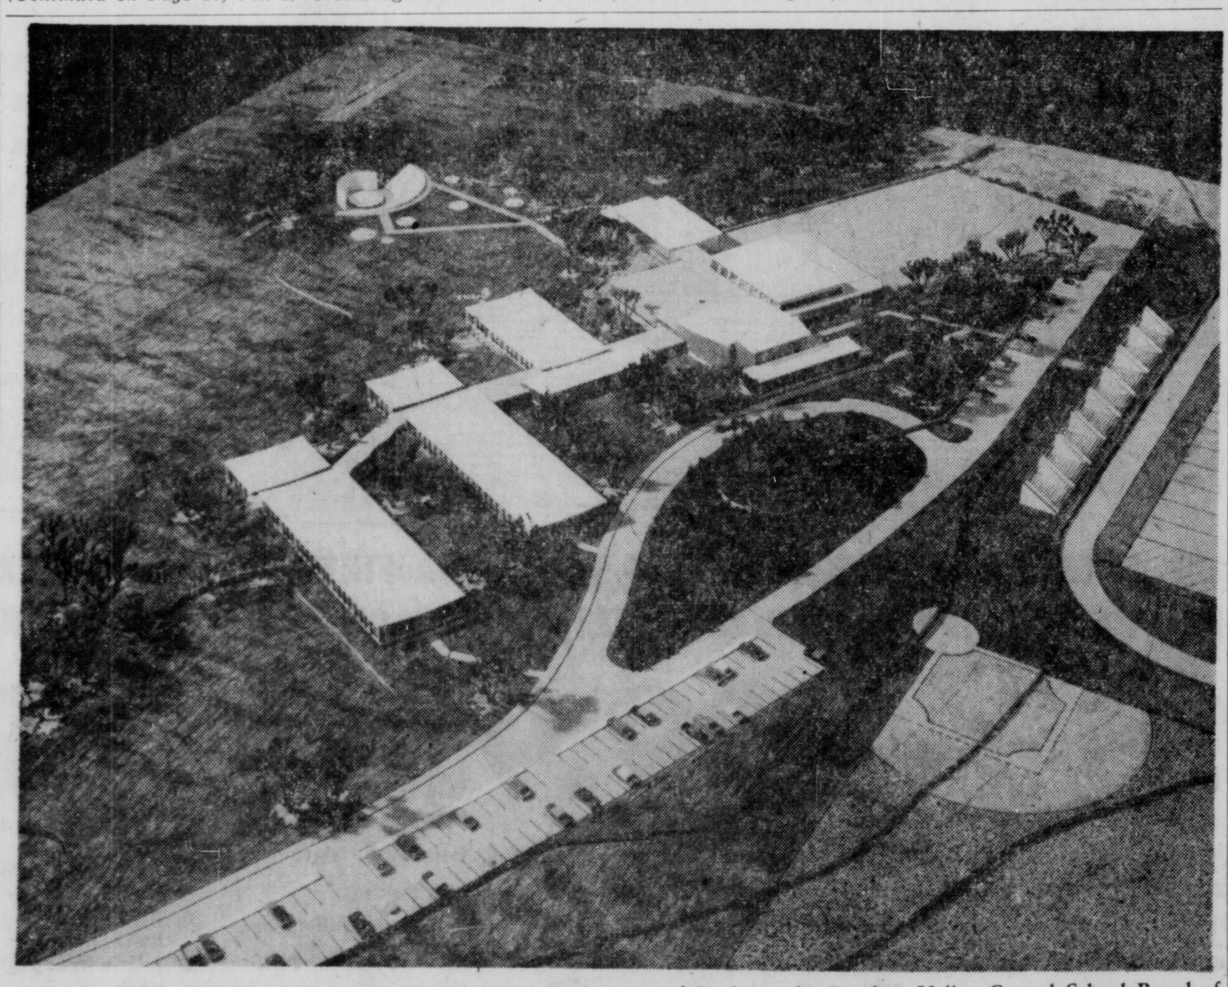

While Harriman wants top weekly benefits raised from $36 to $45, he will not accept other changes tied to the GOP bills. These would raise the maximum jobless-pay tax on employers from 2.7 to 3.5 per cent of payroll and broaden court review of compensation awards.

The session carried strong political overtones that looked to 1958, when Harriman will be up for re-election. Both Heck and

State Working on Vaccine In Case Far East Flu Hits

Albany, N. Y., June 13 (AP)—Experts at the State Health Department laboratory today sought to develop a vaccine aimed specifically at prevention of the influenza sweeping the Far East.

In announcing the start of the pilot project yesterday, Health Commissioner Herman E. Hilleboe said there was no evidence of a flu epidemic in the state or the nation. He said, however, there is always the possibility that one might appear.

Dr. Hilleboe said the state laboratory had a specimen of the virus, designated "Far East 57," causing the Far East epidemic. He said the virus was a variant of the Type A virus seen in this country recently.

The specimen is being grown on fertile hen's eggs in the laboratory, Dr. Hilleboe said. This is the first step in the production of pilot lots of the vaccine.

A small quantity of the vaccine developed in the pilot project will be tested to determine whether it is potent enough. During this three week period, the department will attempt to iron out any obstacles to large scale production, should this be needed.

Dr. Hilleboe said there was no vaccine on hand to protect against the Far East virus.

He said Gov. Harriman has authorized the Health Department to take any steps necessary to be prepared if the Far Eastern virus reaches this country.

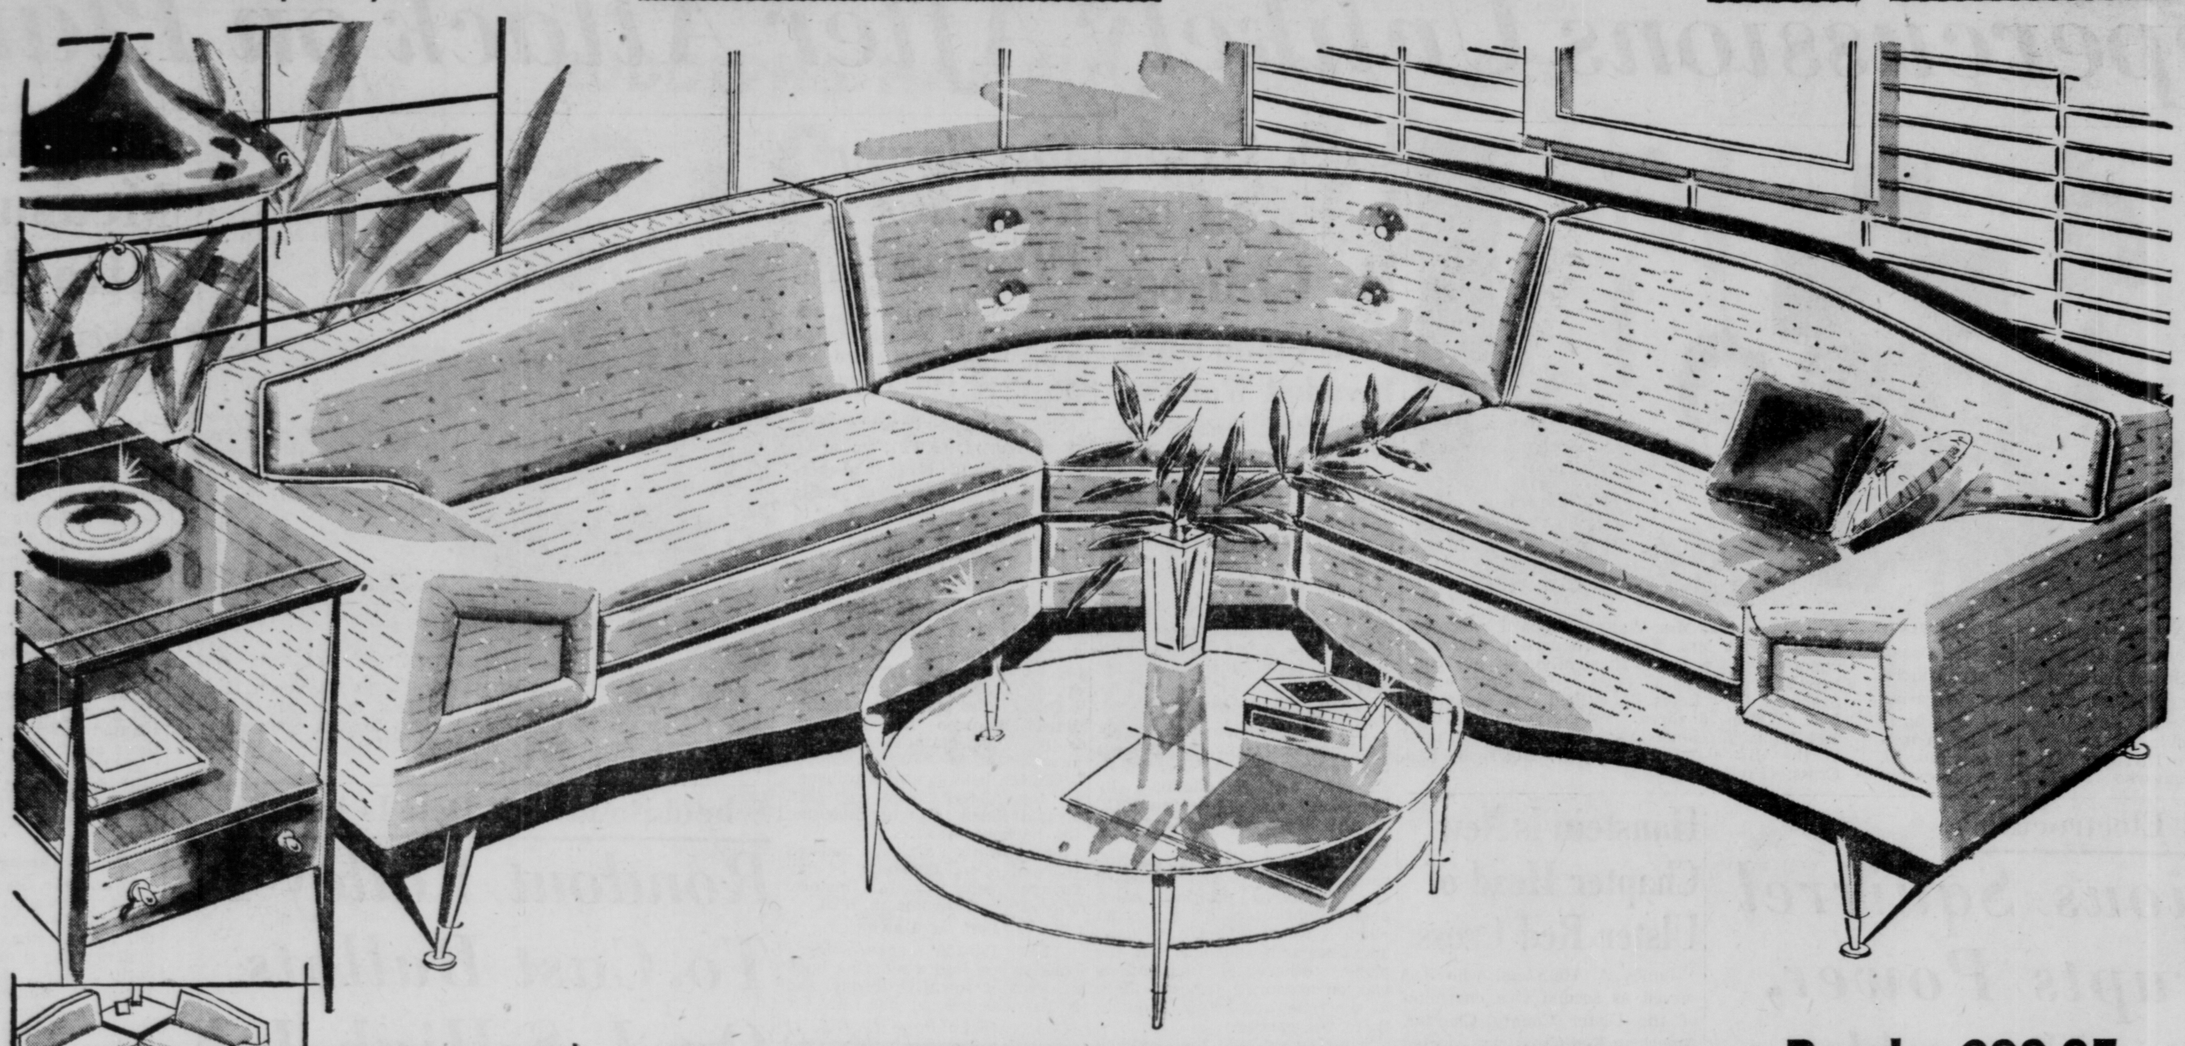

Meanwhile, the commissioner said, Dr. Donald Dickson, Rockland county health officer, reported a few flu-like illnesses.

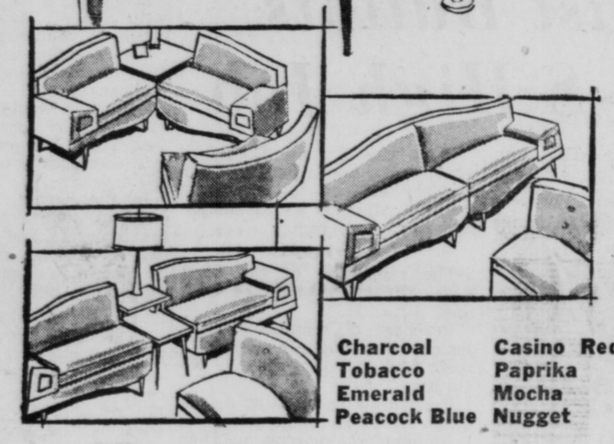

Dr. Hilleboe said the illnesses did not appear to be true influenza but laboratory tests must be completed since the type of influenza cannot be diagnosed accurately except by laboratory methods.

Dubinsky Rites On Anniversary To Be Televised

DAVID DUBINSKY

A gala celebration in New York city's Madison Square Garden marking the 25th anniversary of David Dubinsky as president of the International Ladies' Garment Workers' Union and 25 years of the union's progress will be broadcast tonight on the ABC network coast-to-coast.

Radio Station WABC is scheduled to carry the program for listeners in this area at 10:05 p. m. Radio specialists believe this is the first time a trade union has sponsored a program of this type to give its membership in 41 states a chance to participate in a unique historical event.

20,000 Expected

Nationally known leaders in the fields of government, industry, organized labor and community affairs have accepted invitations to attend. From the sweeping demand for admissions, it is evident that the giant arena will be crowded to its 20,000 capacity, a report said.

Among the speakers will be Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, U. S. Senator Hubert H. Humphrey, Mayor Robert F. Wagner of New York city, Judge Jacob Panken, AFL-CIO President George Meany, President Dubinsky and ILGWU First Vice President Luigi Antonini.

The entertainment stars on the program will include Milton Berle, Elaine Malbin, noted TV and concert artist; Jerome Hines of the Metropolitan Opera, and the City Center Orchestra conducted by Salvatore Del'Isola of South Pacific and Oklahoma fame.

Chive Substitute

If you can't locate chives, use bottled onion juice. One teaspoon of it is said to substitute for one tablespoon of chives in recipes.

Ships in Proud Review

Norfolk, Va., June 13 (AP) — Ships of the United States and 17 foreign nations broke formation today after a proud international review display that represented perhaps a final fling of military grandeur for many of them. From the precise anchorage stations that strung them out along a double column 14 miles long they moved to close shore side moorings, their flags and bunting stowed against the slim possibility of another such fulldress review. For many of the ships—the old, the not-so-old and others outdated in the present day pace of jets, missiles and nuclear power—the hours of glory in the international review amounted to a swan song.

In Four Years

Reports Chinese Reds Killed Off 800,000 Persons

New York, June 13 (AP)—The New York Times said today that Mao Tze-tung has admitted 800,000 persons were "liquidated" by Chinese Communist security forces between October, 1949, and the beginning of 1954.

A Times dispatch from Warsaw said Red China's top leader disclosed that figure in his much-discussed speech to party leaders in Peiping last February.

The text of Mao's speech has not been published, but a condensed version has been circulated among Polish Communists and parts of it previously have been reported by western correspondents in Warsaw.

Set New Theory

The latter included Mao's new Marxist theory that contradictions exist, not only in the ranks of the masses but also between the masses and the party. This represented a departure from Soviet doctrine which long has held that conflicts between the rulers and the ruled existed only under capitalism and vanished in a Communist society.

The Times dispatch, which said textual excerpts of Mao's speech now have been obtained, reported that other main points made by the Red leader included:

Stalin's failure to understand that contradictions, including those between the leaders and the people, exist under communism led to a rule of terror and the liquidation of thousands of Communists.

"In dealing with enemies it is necessary to use force," Mao said. "We in China also have used force to deal with enemies of the people. The total number of those who were liquidated by our security forces numbers 800,000. This is the figure up to 1954.

Reds Hint Kadar Reign at Stake Is Party Fight

Budapest, June 13 (AP)—Communist sources said today that a fierce, behind-scene fight is ranging within the party over whether Hungary should take a stronger pro-Soviet line or move toward greater independence like Poland.

The position of Janos Kadar, both as premier and head of the party, may be at stake. His sympathizers believe he would go the more independent way of Polish party boss Wladyslaw Gomulka if he could.

Diplomats Skeptical

Western diplomats are skeptical. They wonder whether reports of opposition to Kadar within the party are designed to gain sympathy for him in the west, where he generally is regarded as a puppet of Moscow.

Two groups are reported working against Kadar within the party. The showdown will come toward the end of June. The Socialist Workers party—as the Hungarian Communists now call themselves—will hold a national conference then for the first time since Russian troops drove Nationalist Communist Premier Imre Nagy from office last November.

A permanent central committee will be installed, and there may be some changes in the top leadership.

The heart and stomach of a shrimp is in its head.

Rail Conductors Settle Dispute

Chicago, June 13 (AP)—The nation's major railroads and a 20,000-member conductors' union last night settled an eight-month wage dispute with a three-year contract calling for pay hikes totaling 26½ cents an hour.

The agreement was announced by the National (Railway) Mediation Board after negotiations between the railroads and the Order of Railway Conductors and Brakemen.

A mediation board member, Leverett Edwards, said provisions of the new contract follow a "pattern of those accepted by unions representing about 94 per cent of all railroad employes."

Under the terms of the new contract, road conductors will receive an immediate raise of 12½ cents an hour. This boost is retroactive to Nov. 1, 1956, the end of the last contract period.

An additional 7 cents hourly will be made effective Nov. 1, 1957, and another 7-cent raise will go into effect Nov. 1, 1958. The new contract also contains an escalator clause that provides for cost of living adjustments.

PROBLEM OF FBI FILES

Though the Supreme Court's majority on the issue was 7 to 1, its decision ordering the government to open relevant FBI files in criminal trials is sure to stir wide controversy.

Up to now the FBI's reports have been held confidential, not to be disclosed either in or out of trial except at the FBI's own discretion.

In the view of FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover, there are at least two sound reasons why such disclosure should not be made. First, he contends that information thus gained can be used by criminals to block justice. Second, he asserts that many vital FBI sources of information will automatically dry up if their confidential nature is not respected.

Nevertheless, the high court majority, speaking through Justice William Brennan, declared that justice requires that a defendant be allowed to see the FBI's reports where they form a basis for the testimony of witnesses.

He said the defendant should have the chance to determine effective use of the reports "for the purpose of discrediting the government's witness" and furthering his own defense.

Not all the majority justices went the whole way with Brennan's opinion. Justice Harold Burton wrote a separate view concurred in by Justice John Harlan, arguing that a trial judge ought to be permitted to pass on the relevancy of secret FBI reports before they are opened to the defendant's use.

Justice Tom Clark, the lone dissenter, saw the decision as potentially dangerous to the national welfare and safety. He feared that the FBI and other federal law enforcement agencies "may as well close up shop" if they are compelled to let criminals have a "Roman holiday for rummaging through confidential information as well as vital national secrets."

In his judgment, while the majority's view may be reasonable in state prosecutions, it does not fit trials involving the federal government, where problems of foreign relations, espionage, sabotage, internal security and national defense arise.

The majority said the government in each individual case must decide whether to let a crime go unpunished or to prosecute, knowing state secrets might be disclosed in the process.

Clark doubts the adequacy of such protection and urges that Congress act to close the loophole made by the majority opinion.

The court has spoken its mind. Now Congress and the public must settle whether or not such an approach as this decision provides is truly capable of safeguarding the national interest.

Theater critics are persons who don't like corn but overlook the fact that many others do.

OWN YOUR OWN BUS

Must a man either take inadequate public transportation, or drive to work? Detroit has shown that there is another alternative. There 23 suburbanites have bought a bus, and use it to go back and forth to their places of employment. They are thus sure of regular transportation, and a seat while riding. The privilege costs $10 a month.

Some residents of Cincinnati have had a similar arrangement for more than a year. Its beneficiaries find it very satisfactory. Such a plan is well worth copying.

As cars increase and the use of public transportation falls off, there can be only one end unless something is done. Public transportation lines will fold up entirely, and the worker will have to drive his own car, ride with a friend, or walk. The Detroit and Cincinnati plans, which are an outgrowth of the familiar car pool, may be the long-desired answer.

VENTURES LTD.

The new Secretary of the Treasury, Robert B. Anderson, will take that position after resigning from Ventures Limited, a Canadian company, of which he has been president. This is a vast holding company, with tangible net worth of about $22,000,000 and which either owns or has a huge interest in a large number of other companies throughout the world.

Canada does not object to the cartel system of operations and it would be a question of legal definition rather than private opinion whether many of Canada's industries have been cartelized. There seems to be no objection to the cartel in capitalistic countries other than the United States. At any rate, Ventures Limited is acknowledged to be one of the largest holding companies in the mining field. Its income derives from dividends paid by various companies in which it has made its investments.

Ventures Lmited was chartered on January 27, 1938, with an original authorized capital of $10,000,000. The genius of the enterprise has undoubtedly been T. Lindsley, the chairman of its board of directors, who was born in the United States and came to Canada in 1937, as a geologist, and became interested in various mining properties which eventually became Ventures Limited. The indicated market value of the stock ownership in subsidiary and related companies of Ventures Limited is about $112,000,000.

In 1954, the various oil interests of Ventures Limited and Frobisher Limited, a subsidiary, were consolidated into Geoil Limited, a subsidiary of Frobisher Limited. (The use of numerous subsidiaries, piling tier upon tier, has become customary in all countries to influence tax payments.) Ventures Limited owns about 1,356,000 shares of Geoil Limited of which R. B. Anderson was a Director. These interlocking directorates would indicate that these companies are all controlled by more or less the same interests, brought together by T. Lindsley, chairman of Ventures Limited. Geoil Limited operates not only in Canada but also in the United States, particularly in Louisiana, where it has substantial oil interests.

Ventures Limited, which is the controlling shareholder of Frobisher Limited and Geoil Limited, operates through its subsidiaries and related companies in Canada, Africa, South America and the United States. Geoil, for instance, has a 50 per cent interest in Trans Border Limited which owns the Williston Oil and Gas Limited which operates in the United States with great success.

It is interesting that this enormous Canadian enterprise found an American to be its president and that he replaces as Secretary of the Treasury, George Humphrey whose Mark Hanna Company also holds enormous mine properties in Canada. The economic relations between the two countries are important and perhaps interlocking to a greater degree than is generally assumed. Many financial companies and financial devices exist which bring the business of the two countries together. Furthermore, many Canadian enterprises are financed in London, and Canada may serve as a bridge between the London and New York market, providing financial organizations which facilitate investment but which are now forbidden in this country. The Toronto stock exchange for instance, is a much freer institution than the New York stock exchange. Current studies of the invasion of Canadian capital into the United States would indicate that they are larger than has generally been assumed.

There has been so much mystery about the new Secretary of the Treasury that I thought that I might as well research Ventures Limited and introduce the gentleman properly to the taxpayer. A quiet businessman, working in Toronto since he ceased to be Deputy Secretary of Defense, he has not been as well known to the American people as a successor to Alexander Hamilton should be. His first political appointment was Secretary of the Navy, in the Eisenhower Administration, although he is a Democrat. His views on various subjects are not known at all.

For instance what are his views on the budget, tax-cuts, the evasion of taxes by corporations by means of tier subsidiaries scattered all over the world, etc., etc.? Anderson has not had anything to say on these matters at all and therefore he cannot be unpopular because no one knows what he is for or against. However, it is to be presumed that he cannot be too antagonistic to George Humphrey's position because no big businessman could be, and in due course, events will require statements on various subjects.

HELPING THE DRUG ADDICT

A recent article in Health struck me as so helpful and realistic an approach to drug addiction that I would like to pass it on at length for the consideration of my readers. The author used a pen name—"Tom M."—in order to express himself with complete freedom.

He says that it is obvious that the problem of drug addiction is increasing and it will not disappear because we ignore it or because it does not strike us personally. "It is apparent that what is required is an institution, every few hundred miles across the country, where the addict may simply knock at the door and be admitted. Now, there is something about the official mind that balks at the thought of the solution being that simple. It would feel that it is essential that the addict's request and the answer he would receive, should be so entwined in red tape that the addict would be driven away."

Too few of use realize that 99 per cent of all addicts are anxious to quit. Their trouble lies in the fact that if they are really habituated—that is, if they have been taking two or more doses per day for three months or longer—it is impossible for them to quit without help. They must be confined for several months and the only place which will accept them is the jail. Mental hospitals accept only a few so that if they have already spent all their money on drugs (as they so often have), they cannot enter a private institution.

Our primary concern is with the addicts who have reached the point of no return—without help. The emotional stress suffered by the addict after he has passed this point, when he sees his home, his job and his loved ones slipping away, and his future disappearing in a blur of gloomy haze, need not be enlarged upon. It can be imagined by any intelligent person. His path is leading him into a criminal career in almost every case. And it, in turn, leads to jail. When he is convicted and sentenced, it is frequently for a longer time than it would require to cure him in an institution operated for that purpose. If he is sent to a reformative or a penitentiary, it will cost the public five dollars per day for every day he is there and from a strictly materialistic point of view, a large part of that expense is unnecessary and money wasted.

While the addict was at large, because there was no institution that would take him in, he was forced to steal. In order to obtain ten dollars every day for drugs and keep, it was necessary for him to steal thirty or forty dollars worth of merchandise. This cost the storekeeper—if the addict was a shoptlifter—fifteen to twenty dollars per day and this expense, in turn, is passed on to the public in the form of higher prices. These are minimal figures. Therefore, any plan that would reduce this drain on the public pocket and the debilitating effect on the drug victims' morals should be welcomed. We will discuss such a plan tomorrow.

Washington News

BY PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

Washington, (NEA) — It's time to drag out the old box score again to see how Congress is doin'.

Excepting the House of Representatives' record in passing 11 appropriation bills that would trim next year's budget by four billion dollars, there isn't anything to brag about.

In the first five months of 85th Congress operations, action has been completed on only 45 public laws which have been signed by President Eisenhower. Only a few are important.

This record is so poor that Republican Minority Leader Joe Martin of Massachusetts says Congress will still be here Aug. 15.

But that's only 10 weeks away and the session is two-thirds gone.

If this Congress does as well as the last session, it will have to move about nine times as fast as it has been going. For 390 public laws were enacted in both 1955 and 1956.

Democratic congressional leaders came back from their Easter vacation considerably burned up by charges that they had a "Do-Nothing" record at mid-session. But in April, Congress completed action on only 16 public laws and in May cut it to 15.

ORDERS WENT out from Democratic Majority Leader Lyndon Johnson that every one of President Eisenhower's 146 legislative recommendations is to receive Senate consideration this year.

Senator Johnson made clear that "consideration" did not necessarily mean approval. It was pointed out that many of the Eisenhower proposals would require extended committee work and that action could not be completed before 1958.

For a time the Senate went on a three-day week for regular sessions. This was to give committees more time to clean up their work. But things are still pretty well stalled.

Two important bills recently reported to the Senate are to regulate election campaign contributions and to amend the lobbying law. But almost simultaneously the word was passed along that there would be no action on these measures this year. These are congressional, not presidential, reforms.

THE EISENHOWER Civil Rights bill has been tied up in Senate Judiciary Committee for weeks, but is now emerging with the jury trial amendment tacked on. It might be filibustered.

If it isn't, plus House action on a companion Civil Rights bill, may remove one important legislative roadblock and clear the way for action on federal aid-to-education legislation.

What is most significant about the congressional record so far is that most of the measures passed are trivia.

Perhaps the most important congressional action last month was the increase in interest rates on U. S. saving bonds.

All this record indicates there is an obvious stall in Congress. If it is politically motivated to make the Eisenhower administration look bad, this shot could backfire on the Democrats who now control Congress.

EVERY DELAY makes more valid President Eisenhower's constant plea that he must have a Republican-controlled Congress.

The hard-boiled and practical politicians of both parties who oppose the Administration and want to cut down its budget have their side of this argument, too. They contend that the American people don't want the Eisenhower program. And for this reason the Congress isn't going to do anything more about it than is absolutely necessary.

Small wonder, then, that the President is eating box luncheons with his GOP cohorts and then inviting them to the White House for breakfast in bunches.

Regulation Fades In Food Industry, Grocers Told

Chicago, June 13 (AP)—A spokesman for the food distribution industry today said that there are "more secret rebates, bribes, handouts, and similar illegitimate payments in that industry than ever before."

Federal regulation over unfair and discriminatory practices in the industry is breaking down almost completely, Henry J. Bison Jr. of Washington, D. C., associate general counsel of the National Assn. of Retail Grocers, told the 58th annual convention.

Bison, in a prepared address, called for the enforcement and observance of the Robinson-Patman Act, which is applicable to distribution policies of the food industry.

Says Act Doomed

"Another year of the present trend will render the Robinson-Patman Act a lifeless relic of the past in the industry," said Bison.

"If discriminatory practices are permitted to thrive and flourish they will inevitably become the accepted way of doing things, and will drive honest and fair practices out of the market."

Bison also told grocers about the merger movement in the retail food distribution industry that "holds especially grave implications for the future."

He suggested two alternatives to meet the merger problem.

"One is to restrain harmful mergers by law. The other is to change the present climate so that small and medium size local operators will not feel it necessary or advisable to sell out."

A Supreme Court Decision Seen as Adding to 'Chaos'

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington, June 13—The Supreme Court of the United States added several complexities to the judge-made chaos of our times last Monday when it handed down a decision freeing two American women who murdered their soldier husbands. The reason for acquitting them is that, because they lived in military quarters overseas, they were denied a civilian "trial by jury."

Maybe Congress now will be encouraged to give the same "civil rights" of trial by jury to both white and Negro citizens in the South who don't commit murder but are merely charged with "criminal contempt" under vaguely worded court injunctions.

Eight justices participated in the decision and the ninth refrained because he had not been on the court long enough to hear the whole case. But the ruling and dissenting opinions which covered more than 25,000 words do not give Members of Congress or anyone else the slightest inkling of what is or is not "the supreme law of the land" on this particular issue.

Majority Opinion

Four justices ruled that the wives of service men cannot be tried overseas or anywhere else by court-martial but must be tried by civilian courts—either foreign or specially provided for by the United States.

Two justices in separate opinions agreed to dispose of the case by freeing the two women because they said they had not had a jury trial and that in the matter of a capital offense—punishable by death—there has to be a jury trial. They declared that other kinds of offenses committed by civilians attached to the armed forces might possibly come within military jurisdiction but declined to be specific about future cases.

Two Dissenters

Two dissenting justices said the evidence showed that two women "brutally killed their husbands, both American soldiers, while stationed with them in quarters furnished by our armed forces on its military installations in foreign lands."

These justices wanted to uphold the ruling of the military tribunal which had sent the women to prison for life.

Now it so happens that these two cases were decided the other way—the military court was upheld—in a decision handed down a year ago by the Supreme Court.

The high court seldom reverses itself. If it does, it usually contends that some new facts have been brought out that weren't available before. This time the majority of the justices say frankly their previous decisions was wrong. Justice Frankfurter in his separate opinion goes to considerable pains, however, to show that the ruling rendered a year ago was based on a previous decision in another case that really doesn't resemble the facts or circumstances surrounding the present case.

The School Decision

One wonders after reading Justice Frankfurter's explanation why four of the six justices who voted to release the murderers didn't at least give some such explanation when they reversed the famous opinion upholding "separate but equal" facilities in schools. This decision was rendered originally in 1896 and was then reversed in 1954 when the court merely said it believed "sociological" considerations had somehow grown more important—a concession to expediency. Mr. Frankfurter in his opinion last Monday, however, in arguing for the idea of giving explanations when reversals by the court occur, quoted approvingly of the following concept:

"If a precedent involving a black horse is applied to a case involving a white horse, we are not excited. If it were an elephant, then we would venture into thought. The difference might make a difference. We really are concerned about precedents chiefly when their facts differ somewhat from the facts in the cast at bar."

The foregoing will be quoted again and again to point out that the Supreme Court in reversing the "separate but equal" doctrine three years ago just didn't have any new facts but decided to go along with the "trend of the times." Justice Frankfurter in his latest opinion warns belatedly that reversals must be based on judicial principle and he adds: "Legal doctrines are not self-generated abstract categories. They do not fall from the sky; nor are they pulled out of it. They have a specific juridical origin and etiology."

Meaning of the Word

Looking up in the dictionary the word "etiology," one finds it means "custom," which makes the phrase mean judicial precedent and the customs of the people — which the Supreme Court certainly ignored in the integration cases.

The Supreme Court, moreover, ventured into a lot of other fields with its variegated opinion on the two murder cases which it decided last Monday. Four of the justices—Chief Justice Warren, Justices Black, Douglas and Brennan — said a significant thing about how treaties or agreements with foreign governments cannot supersede the Constitution. Presumably even if the United States agreed by treaty, for instance, to let William Girard be tried by a Japanese court, this doesn't mean the treaty or agreement under which such action were taken is constitutional. It could mean that Girard has a right to trial at least by an American military court.

Sen. Bricker, sponsor of the much-discussed amendment to the Constitution to assure that a treaty cannot supersede the Constitution, feels reassured by the new pronouncement but points out that only four justices subscribed to the declaration. It all adds to the bewilderment of the public which is being solemnly told that it must always bow to "the supreme law of the land" —whatever that is today.

Today's Business Mirror

By SAM DAWSON

New York, June 13 (AP) — A split personality in business shows up today in two ways:

1. The split between current conditions and future plans.

2. The split between falling manufacturing employment plus shorter work weeks in factories on the one hand and the increasing totals of over-all employment and personal incomes on the other.

These could add up to a breather in manufacturing—without qualms as to the long term trend—while good times continue in many other ways of making a living.

Shows in Comparison

The split shows up when you compare figures just released by the government on trends in employment, retail sales, and revised business plans for spending on new plants and equipment.

The number of workers in factories dropped by 122,000 in May, about twice the usual dip for that season, the Commerce and Labor Departments report. The average factory work week declined to 39.7 hours, the shortest week since September 1954.

But are manufacturers downhearted by this slide off from boom times? Apparently not. The Department of Commerce and the Securities and Exchange Commission report that for 1957 more than 16¾ billion dollars for new plant and equipment, aimed to meet their ideas of how good business will be when the plants are finished.

For all business and commercial firms such spending is estimated at just under 37½ billion dollars. The government agencies say that plans for spending this summer have been increased a little from earlier expectations.

View Remains Same

The lull in some kinds of business just now apparently hasn't changed businessmen's view that another boom will be coming along.

Despite the dip in factory jobs, outdoor work increased in May and total employment rose by 917,000 to more than 65 million, while unemployment held around 2¾ million, or four per cent of the total labor force.

Total retail sales in May ran four per cent higher than a year ago. But some shifts in spending habits are shown there. Car, appliance building material and home furnishing sales are lower than hoped. Department store sales are riding only one or two per cent above last year. But sales so far this year for chain and mail order firms are running 7.2 per cent above a year ago.

These diverse trends show how consumer spending is changing—a usually unpredictable factor in business forecasting.

Subdued Spending

Most of the figures also show that even where spending is still increasing it is at a much more subdued pace than last year.

While business spending for plant and equipment is expected to be 6½ per cent higher than last year, 1956 saw a jump of 22.5 per cent over the 1956 outlay.

Last year everyone seemed in a hurry to build right away. It was this rush that helped send building material prices higher, to make money and credit tight, and to revive fears in Washington of a sharp spurt in inflation.

This year industry's ideas of how much new plant they need is a bit more modest. And about half of the gain in their outlays is laid to higher costs of equipment and construction.

But as long as retail sales hold high, business spending continues large, and government spending increases, the soft spots in the economy seem unlikely to spread and cause general trouble.

New Hurley, June 12 —Last Wednesday afternoon the Ladies' Aid Society met at the home of Mrs. Elwood Powell. The president, Mrs. Gerow Wilkin presided. Thirteen members responded to the roll call. At the close of the meeting the hostess served refreshments and a social time was enjoyed. There will be no meeting of the society in July. On August 7 a picnic will be held on the church grounds.

A large gathering attended the Children's Day exercises held in the church last Sunday morning. A program was rendered with Mrs. Frank Dylewski as chairman. Mrs. Wallace Palen directed the junior choir.

There will be regular preaching services in the New Hurley Church next Sunday at 11 a. m. and Sunday school in the church hall at 10 o'clock. All are welcome.

Next Sunday evening the New Hurley congregation is invited to attend a meeting at the Brick Reformed Church in Montgomery when a report will be given on General Synod.

DAD Will Be GLAD You Saved On Father's Day Gifts At Wards

Why Split Hairs?

Due West, S. C. (AP)—Erskine College officials are wondering what to do with a new gift: 50 locks of hair. The collection, clipped from the heads of the college's first graduating class of women in 1859, was presented by Dr. D. L. Kay of Anderson. He got it from a descendant of one of the class members.

The average man's whiskers grow about one-half inch a month, or six inches a year.

Concerns Brush Aside Meany's Corruption Blast

Washington, June 12 (AP)—Three companies have brushed aside allegations by AFL-CIO President George Meany that the firms' welfare plans provide examples of "corruption and malfeasance."

And one of the three—General Electric—took a return whack at Meany, saying he "has made himself ridiculous in his unwarranted charges as a result, presumably, of his being misled" by James B. Carey, president of the International Union of Electrical Workers which has contracts with GE.

"We hope," GE said in a statement, "this is not just a carefully times attempt to discredit reputable companies in order to divert the spotlight from the current unfavorable disclosures on activities of some union officials before other Senate committees."

Meany made his charges yesterday in testimony before a Senate labor subcommittee. He asked that proposed legislation requiring disclosure on welfare funds be applied to management-operated funds as well as those administered by unions.

Norstad Against Norway Pulling Out of NATO

Washington, June 12 (AP)—Gen. Lauris Norstad reportedly has spoken strongly to congressmen against any move to have Norway withdraw from the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO).

Several members of the House Foreign Affairs Committee said the NATO military commander was asked at a closed meeting yesterday about a disputed proposal by Senate GOP Leader Knowland (Calif.).

Knowland has suggested Norway quit NATO in return for Russian withdrawal from Hungary, provided Norway consents.

The suggestion was tagged "careless and superficial" by Norwegian Foreign Minister Lange. Secretary of State Dulles has indicated disapproval.

Norstad was reported to have avoided comment of a political nature in his House committee appearance. But the youthful-looking general, himself of Scandinavian descent, stressed that Norway's territory adjoins Russia's in the far north, and that to pull Norway out would expose the whole northern flank of NATO to the Soviets.

DO YOU REMEMBER

By SOPHIE MILLER

From time to time I receive such letters as the following, "Am wondering if you could tell me where I could get some information on old books. I have two which I know must be valuable. If you know of any such party will you advise me. Have been to Kingston Library but they could not help me" signed Mrs. M. Marburger, 207 Clifton avenue, Kingston, N. Y. There is not much more I can add to what the Kingston Library said. There are markets for old books like anything else but I am not in contact with them. Perhaps some of the readers could answer Mrs. Marburger's question.

Received a copy of the first issue of The Sun dated Tuesday Sept. 3, 1833. This came in an IBM envelope, but no signature, or name so I do not know who sent it to me, anyway "Thanks!" Of course this newspaper is a reprint, not original and it seems it was the third section of the 100th anniversary number, Saturday, Sept. 2, 1933, so somebody saved it from then, I take it. Many such mysterious items appear in my mail through the kindness of my readers, known or unknown.

Back in old days, somehow instead of startling news on the front page they would put a story and some advertisements. They did not seem to consider the front page important. How times have changed. The name of the 1833 story is "An Irish Captain." The first of the three columns are taken up by news of sailing vessels and side-wheelers leaving New York. For instance, one advertisement reads: "For Albany-passage only $1. The large and commodious steamboat, Commerce, Capt. R. H. Fitch, will leave the foot of Courtlandt street on Friday, at 5 o'clock p. m. for Albany, stopping at the usual landing places to land and receive passengers. Passage $1. For particulars, apply to the captain on board. Regular days. From New York, Mondays, Wednesdays, Fridays. From Albany: Tuesdays, Thursdays, Saturdays." No doubt this sidewheeler stopped in or near Kingston. They have newspaper cuts of sidewheelers and sailing vessels, so you can see what type of a vessel is used. For Albany, Newport, Providence and Hartford they used sidewheelers, looks like our Mary Powell. For New Orleans, London, Liverpool and other far ports they used sailing vessels, so it seemed.

In a colorful booklet called The Romance of Ships by A. O. Pulford, they mention first steamships were built as long ago as 1787, when an American named Fitch invented a steamer driven by oars. Twenty years later, another American, Robert Fulton, designed the "Clermont," a paddle-steamer which he used for carrying passengers between New York and Albany. The first paddle ship to cross the Atlantic was the "Savannah," in 1819 which took no fewer than 35 days to cross to Liverpool, although for 17 of those days she had to rely on her sails exclusively. Her engines were not powerful enough to drive at a speed exceeding seven miles an hour. Sometimes in stormy seas, the paddle-wheels would be smashed by the huge waves. Often the engines also broke down so the sails were used. It seems that in those days guns were as important as paddle-wheels when on long journeys across oceans. This is an English-printed book and I notice they use term "paddle-steamer" while we call it, side-wheelers.

Queen to Visit U. S. in October

Washington, June 12 (AP)—Britain's Queen Elizabeth II and her husband, Prince Philip, have disclosed long-rumored plans to visit America in October.

Full travel details have not been announced but White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said yesterday the couple would be in the United States Oct. 16-21.

They will come here from Canada.

The queen's U. S. visit will begin at Jamestown, Va., where the first permanent English colony in America was established in 1607. She and Philip then will fly to Washington, arriving in late afternoon Oct. 16. President Eisenhower will greet them personally at the Washington airport.

After a three-day official visit, Oct. 20 will be a day of rest here, and the couple expects to spend their last day touring New York city before flying back to London.

Decisions Make 5 Spades Rough

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

Perry Zeller of San Antonio writes: "When I got through with this hand I felt like the man who sorted oranges. Decisions, decisions, decisions!

"My first decision was in the bidding. Should I double five clubs or try for five spades. In rubber bridge I would have doubled but the game was duplicate and I would have to set my non-vulnerable opponents four tricks to make up for the vulnerable game. Hence my five spade bid.

"West opened the king of clubs and East overtook with the ace and led back the three of spades. Should I finesse or play the ace? I finally decided that West needed the king of spades for his overcall and played the ace.

"The next plays were obvious: ace of hearts, king of hearts and a small heart. West discarded a club and I ruffed in dummy. I led a spade and West was in.

"If he had been kind enough to play a second club I could have ruffed in dummy and discarded my losing diamond but West was as mean as possible. He led the jack of diamonds.

"This gave me one more problem. Who held the diamond queen? I knew West of old and knew that he was an inveterate false carder. That decided me. I won in my hand and finessed against the queen of diamonds in the West hand.

"This worked and my contract was home."

A very nicely played hand. As Perry points out he would have taken the sure profit and doubled in rubber bridge. But then, maybe East and West wouldn't have been in the bidding in rubber bridge.

Saugerties Area Business Listing Nears Completion

The classified directory listing all members in good standing of Saugerties Area Chamber of Commerce is nearing completion, it was announced today by Albert J. Cawein, executive secretary.

Prior to publication of the brochure the names of all new members signed during the annual membership campaign now underway, will be added to the directory.

Deadline June 24

All regular members of the Chamber will be listed in the brochure if their 1957 dues are received on or before June 24.

Membership in the Chamber entitles each member to one listing under a single classification. A nominal charge will be made for additional listings of members under other classifications.

The directory will be used in all mailings of the Chamber office and will be distributed to all newcomers in the Saugerties shopping area. Boardinghouses, motels and cabin operators will also receive a supply for distribution to summer boarders and visitors.

Return post cards will be mailed to all members on which they may show how they would like to be listed in the directory.

Says Market Drop Tribute to Ike

New York, June 13 (AP)—Meade Alcorn, Republican national chairman, says the stock market reaction to President Eisenhower's upset stomach was indicative of the people's confidence in the President's policies.

Alcorn, addressing business and industrial leaders at the Union Club yesterday, said:

"I pose as no authority on the stock market, but it seemed significant to me that on Monday a news flash from Washington could, in a matter of minutes, send the Dow-Jones averages into a tailspin on Wall Street and then back up again after it became evident that all the President had was a 'tummy' ache."

Defending the administration's $71,800,000,000 budget, Alcorn said it represented a per capita cost of $416 compared to $469 for the last Democratic budget.

Try 'Going Hawaiian' For Holiday Gathering

BY GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor

For the Fourth of July patio or back-yard party, try going Hawaiian.

Several Polynesian dishes can be cooked outdoors. Now you are set for a Honolulu hoolaulea (whing-ding).

Alan Lewis, who has been to the Islands many times and knows their appeal, manages the bewitching Hawaiian Room which many call "Hawaii's eastern outpost in New York."

For your own luau on porch or in the yard, Lewis suggests a low table around which are placed cushions or fiber mats. (Polynesians sit cross-legged.) Cover table with crepe paper in tapa or tropical design. Spread green leaves from the garden along the table and, of course, fresh flowers. For a truly Hawaiian atmosphere, have fresh pineapples (topped, scored and retopped) and fresh coconuts.

To get on-the-spot recipes for a Fourth of July luau, we relaxed in the softly lighted Hawaiian Room, sipping Polynesian Foam from a coconut shell. First came a large tray of pu-puus (Hawaiian appetizers) with a small iron bazier aflame in the center. On it were barbecued spareribs, Hawaiian style, with fresh pineapple chunks and Kumquats, nuggets of marinated beef and chicken on spears, Island shrimp, clam shells stuffed with chopped clams, sesame seeds and the restaurant's famous Rumaki.

Rumaki (serves 4)

Eighteen water chestnuts, 6 chicken livers, 18 bacon strips, 9 scallions, ½ cup soy sauce, ¼ teaspoon ground ginger, ¼ teaspoon curry powder.

Cut chicken livers into 3 pieces each. Fold each piece over a water chestnut. Wrap a strip of bacon and a scallion, sliced length-wise, around the liver-chestnut core, pinning each kabob with a toothpick. Marinate for at least 1 hour in soya sauce, ginger and curry powder. Serve on thin bamboo sticks. Broil over brazier for 5 minutes, or until bacon is cooked thoroughly.

TOMORROW'S DINNER: Rumaki, broiled fish fillets, tartar sauce, parsley new potatoes, broiled tomato halves, crusty bread, butter or margarine, tossed green salad, oil and vinegar, fresh strawberry cake, coffee, tea, milk.

Authors Charge Monopoly

New York, June 13 (AP)—The Authors League of America says that the television and radio networks imposed a "virtual" news blackout of a House Judiciary Subcommittee report. The league said the subcommittee report, issued Monday, charged the broadcasting networks "with a variety of monopolistic practices" in the music industry. The league said yesterday it sent telegrams to heads of all the networks saying it "deplores the blackout because it constitutes an act of censorship." The league, composed of authors and playwrights, said in a statement that "the leading newspapers of the country gave this (subcommittee) report front page coverage. The broadcasting networks imposed a virtual blackout on this important news."

Miner Found Dead

Shamokin, Pa., June 13 (AP)—A 19-year-old miner buried under 50 tons of shale for 36 hours in a coal mine cave-in was found dead last night. Hope had waned for Frank Pufnock as the searchers, working in shifts, were hampered by sliding rock and walls of the shaft that had to be shored. However, Mrs. Elizabeth Pufnock was waiting by the cave-in when her son's body was brought out. Also standing by were friends, relatives and the miner's teen-aged girl friend, Jean Kershner. Miss Kershner collapsed.

Dorsey to Be Buried In Birthplace Plot

New York, June 13 (AP)—A requiem Mass will be offered at St. Patrick's Cathedral Saturday at 10 a. m. for bandleader Jimmy Dorsey who died yesterday of lung cancer.

The public will be permitted to view Dorsey's body at the Frank E. Campbell Funeral Church, 81st street and Madison avenue, from 2 p. m. today to midnight tomorrow.

Burial will be in Annunciation Church Cemetery, Shenandoah, Pa., the town where Jimmy and his late brother, Tommy, were born.

Khrushy Rejects West Arms Bid As 'Screen' Plan

Hensinki, June 13 (AP)—Nikita Khrushchev today rejected Western proposals for control of disarmament and nuclear weapon production as a "screen to mask plans to continue the arms race."

However, the Soviet Communist boss told a two-hour news conference the Soviet Union would agree to the establishment of international inspection posts in the Soviet Union, the United States, Britain and other countries if this would facilitate agreement on the banning of nuclear tests.

Attitude Stiffens

Khrushchev's remarks, made in answer to a reporter's questions, indicated a stiffening of the Soviet attitude on disarmament. Western delegates to the current negotiations in London of the UN Disarmament Subcommittee had indicated that the Russians there were showing signs of wanting to reach at least a limited agreement with the west.

The Russian proposal for inspection posts is an old one, first put forward by the Soviets May 10, 1955, at the disarmament negotiations as a counter to the Eisenhower "open skies" plan for mutual aerial inspection. The Russians proposed then that international inspection teams be stationed at key posts, airports and road and rail junctions to check on movement of troops and military supplies.

Flu Claims 101

Taipei, June 13 (AP)—The Formosa Health Bureau reported today that 101 persons have died in the influenza epidemic which broke out on the Chinese Nationalist island in April. The bureau said more than a million and a half persons on Formosa sickened during the epidemic, which now has largely subsided. Formosa has a population of more than 10 million. The bureau warned that a second, or even a third, wave of flu might strike. The ailment is still sweeping parts of India, southeast Asia and the Far East.

New 100-Million Plant to Help Upstate Economy

Massena, N. Y., June 13 (AP)—Gov. Harriman tomorrow will turn a shovel of earth for a 100-million-dollar industrial development program that will provide a shot in the arm to northern New York's economy.

The spading will officially start construction of the Reynolds Metals Company's 88-million-dollar aluminum reduction plant at nearby Rooseveltown.

The 1,700-acre plot overlooks the south channel of the St. Lawrence river power project from which Reynolds will draw upwards of 230,000 kilowatts of electrical energy.

Robert Moses, chairman of the State Power Authority, will join the governor and officials of Reynolds at the ground-breaking ceremonies.

Also on hand will be officers of the Chevrolet division of the General Motors Corp.

Auto Plant Planned

The division plans construction of a 12-million-dollar automotive parts fabricating foundry on adjacent property.

Chevrolet officials have been awaiting a decision on an application to the authority for 12,000 kilowatts of power for its fabricating operation. A public hearing was scheduled for late today on the formal issue.

Both construction projects are expected to be completed by 1959, when the Barnhart power dam will be operating at its full 735,000-kilowatt capacity.

Reynolds had indicated it will employ 1,000 workers at its reduction plant. Although GM has declined to approximate its employment figure, informed sources in the north country estimate the number "about 300."

Business Leaders Happy

Business leaders in the area believe the program will aid in stabilizing an economy built in a two-year boom period projected when Moses instituted the 335-million-dollar power project in late 1954.

During the last two years, an estimated 15 million-dollars have been spent on construction of new homes, hotels, shopping centers and service business construction and expansion.

Another phase of the sector's rapidly expanding economy is a 25-million-dollar modernization program at the Aluminum Company of America (Alcoa) plants here.

The assurance of a permanent supply of low-cost hydroelectric power from the St. Lawrence project has been tabbed as the prime reason for the skyrocketing of industrialization in the area.

Others participating in tomorrow's ground-breaking program will be Richard S. Reynolds Jr., president of Reynolds; E. N. Cole, vice president of General Motors Corp. and general manager of the Chevrolet Motor Division; Frank Augsbury, president of the St. Lawrence Valley Assn. of Chambers of Commerce, and leading officials of the town of Massena.

Reports Czech Areas Cleared For Red Training

Baltimore, June 13 (AP)—The Baltimore Sun reported today that scores of villages in four extensive but widely-separated military control districts in Czechoslovakia have been cleared of inhabitants.

In a dispatch from correspondent Edward C. Burks, datelined Bratislava, Czechoslovakia, the Sun said that "quite obviously they are military training activity areas."

"An interesting question," Burks said, "is whether the Communists have set up rocket bases in these mountainous and forested areas."

Burks reported estimates are that 96,000 people lived in the 348 cleared villages before the end of World War 2.

"On the edge of one area a Russian general has a villa and apparently also some aides," Burks said. "He flies in and out by jet plane.

"There may be other Russian officers in these territories. Yet officially there are supposed to be no Russian troops in this country."

Mayflower . . .

the 24-mile trip to Plymouth, where the Pilgrims set foot on the new land.

At about 5:30 a. m. (EDT), a 30-foot coast guard utility boat towed Mayflower II about a mile and a half from her Provincetown mooring so she could sail into windward.

Cmdr. Alan Villiers, a native of Australia, who skippered the replica, said the only trouble experienced on the 53-day trip was a cracked boom during a storm about three weeks ago.

Thousands Lined Shore

He said the boom was lowered to deck and repaired. "Altogether," Villiers said, "Mayflower II sailed with a fair wind."

Thousands of spectators lined the shore to watch the craft come into Provincetown harbor at the end of a tow line while a fleet of about 50 yachts and other craft went out to meet her at the harbor entrance.

All 22 members of the ship's company wore Pilgrim costumes on arrival, but none was allowed ashore at Provincetown.

First aboard the Mayflower II at Provincetown on Cape Cod's tip were immigration, customs and health officials to transact the business necessary when a foreign vessel enters this country.

Then a reception committee and reporters were welcomed aboard.

It was at Provincetown, too, that the original Mayflower made landfall 337 years ago, but Pilgrims remained there a month before proceeding to Plymouth.

Reluctant Acceptance

The reenacted trip also varied widely with the Pilgrim trip of 1620 in another major respect—Mayflower II entered Provincetown harbor under the tow of a coast guard vessel.

Cmdr. Villiers acceded to the urgings of the trip's promoters and the Plymouth reception committee to stay as close as possible to a set timetable.

So, rather than linger only a few miles from the goal until the wind shifted from a southwesterly direction, Cmdr. Villiers apparently reluctantly accepted the tow for 25 miles.

Square-rigged craft such as Mayflower II are notoriously poor at working to windward and she might have faced days at sea waiting a favorable slant of wind.

GOP Presses

Mahoney aspire to the Republican nomination to oppose him.

Rebuff to Governor

Passage of the Republican labor bills, coupled with death of the telephone measure, represented a complete rebuff to the governor, who had called the session and expressed hope of winning the action he wants on these subjects.

But, as Harriman warned yesterday, today's vote on the benefit bills constituted "just the first round" in a long battle.

"No matter what happens," he told a sympathetic CIO rally, "we've got to continue the fight."

Organized labor has supported his demands for compensation and jobless-pay measures boosting benefits only. The CIO meeting passed a resolution urging Harriman to veto the GOP bills again, if passed.

10 Bills On Agenda

The fourth and final day of the session saw all 10 bills that Harriman placed on the agenda come up for action at the same time.

Of the seven "non-controversial" measures, the most significant was a bill clamping a $100-a-week ceiling on the amount of sickness-disability pay that could be exempted from the state income tax.

Rank-and-file lawmakers who stood on the sidelines Monday through Wednesday while their leaders sparred for political advantage were impatient to wind up the session and head home for the weekend.

Harriman invited GOP leaders to a conference this morning, to discuss the question of empowering the legislative watchdog committee to grant immunity to witnesses in its investigations.

But the Republicans rejected the invitation.

Mahoney snapped, "he has our offer."

The Assembly's majority leader, Joseph F. Carlino, said, "there's no point in discussing the matter with him. We've made our position clear."

The GOP maintained that the power was needed at least through December to bring out the facts in the Lanza parole scandal. Harriman had offered to approve the power on a three-month basis.

Other bills on the agenda would:

1. Extend to volunteer firemen any increases in workmen's compensation benefits that might be enacted at the session.

2. Allow local governments to borrow to pay the cost of retroactive social security benefits for their employes.

3. Permit them to make the benefits retroactive for 21 months, instead of the 18 months allowed by current law.

4. Allow New York city to continue 150 teachers in service beyond the compulsory retirement age of 70 so they could qualify for social security.

5. Delete a provision in the election law that requires alphabetical listing of the names of registered voters living at the same address.

6. Permit appeals to the Court of Appeals involving matters before an extraordinary term of Supreme Court, where no provision for appeal now exists.

Preliminary Stay

"We will not take this lying down. There is too much at stake in our area. There is more behind it than meets the eye. The contractors say they're willing to sit down and sign a contract if they can say who will be on our negotiating committee.

"We say this is unfair to labor to say who can represent our union in negotiations. We contend it is illegal for the contractors to attempt to dictate who shall be on our negotiating committee."

Mr. Martocci was referring to the alleged objection by the contractors to having C. H. "Hank" Mayer, business agent, on the committee.

George E. Yerry Jr., president and general agent for the Hudson Valley Council of Carpenters said today:

"In view of the statement alleged to have been made by Mr. Mayer of possible payoffs to unions by contractors I feel if Mayer has any information in regard to any attempted payoffs to any of the carpenters' representatives of this area he should take it to the district attorney.

"If he has no such information he should be more specific in his statement."

Rondout Valley

east of Winfield Corners, between Route 209 and Kyserike.

Plans call for a campus-type structure, all wings connected by enclosed corridors. In good weather they could be opened to give the benefits of fresh air and sunshine to students on way to changing periods.

Proper heating, lighting, ventilation and sanitation have been given special emphasis by Architect Halverson. There is provision for the necessary athletic fields, play areas and parking spaces.

Community Plan

"There must be consideration for community activities in designing the schools of today," Mr. Halverson said. He made his plans accordingly and the school can become a center of adult activity.

For evening programs there is an auditorium, gymnasium, shops, cafeteria, etc., all zoned and detached from the regular day school classroom wings.

Radiation Protection To Be Costly: Lubin

Buffalo, N. Y., June 13 (AP)—State Industrial Commissioner Isadore Lubin says the cost of protecting workers and the public against radiation from atomic-energy plants will be high.

Plants, he said yesterday, must be constructed "to standards of craftsmanship higher than we have required in the past."

Lubin made the statements at the second annual Radiological Safety Conference at Canisius College.

About 300 industrialists and insurance men are attending the three-day conference, which ends tomorrow.

Lubin said that "control technology is sufficiently well-developed to provide adequate protection to the atomic worker, presuming we use our knowledge intelligently."

low was named director for five years and was presented with a past president's pin by the incoming president.

At the meeting, presided over by President John Ludlow, 50 members of the association were present. Three new applications for membership were received, two from Hurley and one from Milton.

Must Stop for School Buses

A report was made by the incoming president, Wallace Wood, who reported it was necessary for all fire apparatus to come to a full halt on approaching a stopped school bus even though the fire apparatus was en route to a fire. The vehicle must remain stopped so long as the school bus lights are flashing. This information had been given at the May meeting of the Fire Chiefs Association last May by officials from Albany.

Both the retiring president, John Ludlow, and the retiring secretary, Arthur Rice, spoke briefly thanking the members for cooperation during the past year and each gave a brief report.

Membership is 200

The Association now has a membership of 200.

Chief Alberg of New Paltz reported the program complete for the Fire Police picnic at New Paltz on Sunday. It will be an all-day affair and he stressed the desire that parents bring their families and especially the children. A program of games, for which prizes will be awarded, has been completed for the kiddies and there will be swimming with a life guard in attendance. If there is rain Sunday the picnic will be held the following Sunday.

Alvin Beatty, president of the Hudson Valley Volunteer Firemen's Association, gave a short talk, reminding the members of the police association of the annual convention in July.

To Meet at Phoenicia

The next meeting of the Fire Police will be in August at Phoenicia. Following adjournment of the meeting refreshments were served by the New Paltz fire department.

Dividends Up

Washington, June 13 (AP) — Cash dividend payments by corporations issuing public reports totaled nearly 4 billion dollars during the first five months of this year an increase of 3½ per cent over the figure for the same period of 1956. The Commerce Department said May payments amounted to 300 million dollars, about 4 per cent higher than for May, 1956.

Check Brush Fire

Firemen were called at 9:45 a. m. to check a rubbish fire at 473 Washingon avenue. Engine 3 from Wiltwyck Station responded. The fire was extinguished with Indian pumps.

Financial and Commercial

New York, June 13 (AP)—Steels and selected issues paced the stock market to a further climb early this afternoon in fairly active trading.

Moving once more into new high ground for 1957, pivotal issues posted gains of fractions to a point or more. Some specialties were up close to 3.

The market was but slightly higher at the opening and losses increased as trading slackened. But there was a spurt in midmorning which raised prices in a number of divisions.

On the American Stock Exchange prices were irregularly higher in moderate trading.

Corporate bonds eased in moderate activity.

U. S. government bonds were lower in light dealings over the counter.

Scouts Paper Drive Rescheduled Saturday

Tillson, June 13 — Due to unexpected circumstances, the paper drive for the local Boy Scout troop could not take place last week, and scout officials have announced that the papers will be picked up this Saturday morning.

All persons contributing newspapers or magazines to the drive are requested to have them tied or in boxes, and placed in the yard where they may be easily picked up by the boys.

World News in Brief

Calls Aid Waste

Washington, June 13 (AP)—Sen. Morse (D-Ore.) said today "a senseless waste of millions" on foreign aid has contributed to "a rising tide of anti-Americanism throughout the world."

Morse joined Sen. Long (D.-La.) in an attempt to cut 390 million dollars from the $3,637,000,000 foreign aid bill over the opposition of both party leaders.

In the Senate's second day of debate, Morse described a committee recommended cut of 227 million dollars in administration requests as "but a spit in the ocean of foreign aid waste."

Rebuke Possible

Washington, June 13 (AP) — Harold Stassen, U. S. disarmament negotiator, attended a White House policy meeting today while administration officials speculated that his prestige has been injured by a reported reprimand from Secretary of State Dulles.

Stassen, who made a hasty flight home last weekend, planned to return to London overnight for further talks with Allied and Soviet representatives on American proposals for a first-stage disarmament agreement.

Premier Confirmed

Paris, June 13 (AP)—A resigned, reluctant National Assembly early today confirmed Maurice Bourges-Maunoury as France's 22nd postwar premier by a majority of less than 50 votes. The action ended a three-week cabinet crisis.

Both the pre-ballot debate and the 240-194 vote itself reflected the Assembly's lack of enthusiasm. Seventy-three deputies abstained.

Bourges-Maunoury fell 58 votes short of an absolute majority of the Assembly's 595 members. But only a majority of those voting was needed to install him.

GI Takes Blame

Maebashi, Japan, June 13 (AP)—A Japanese police officer said today a Michigan soldier has told Japanese authorities that he—not Sp. 3c William Girard — tossed empty shell casings onto a U. S. Army range before a Japanese woman scrap collector was shot and killed Jan. 30.

The officer, who would not be quoted by name or rank, said the statement of Sp. 3c Victor Nickel of Inkster, Mich., that he scattered the empty shells "at Girard's suggestion" has been included in a secret police file on the shooting.

Curious Squirrel

later explained as "a drop in electric power."

A fire department report at 7:15 p. m. said an operator of the New York Telephone Company called and advised that the fire alarm system at 172 Pearl street "had been ringing for about 10 minutes."

Phones Knocked Out

The report noted that while power was disrupted the telephone company did not have "any ringing power and could not contact the fire department."

A telephone company spokesman said today their service was out for "about eight minutes" and they switched to auxiliary power.

Engine 1 and Truck 1 from Central Station, Engine 3 and Truck 2 from Wiltwyck Station and the A. H. Wicks Engine and Truck Co., and salvage truck responded under the direction of Deputy Chief Harold Sanford, who reported there was no fire.

He said the three-story brick building is owned by Mrs. John Hutton and is operated as a nursing home. There were 28 patients in the building—six on the first floor, and eleven on both the second and third floors, he said.

Inspector Called

Deputy Chief Sanford said an electrical inspector was called to determine the cause of the fire detection system ringing and attributed it "to a drop in electric power."

A call earlier, at 6:55 p. m., was for a car fire on Broadway in front of Kingston Hospital.

Firemen reported that antifreeze in a 1956 sedan owned by Joseph Schatzel, of 10 Furnace street, ignited. Engine 1 from Central Station responded. No damage was reported.

And about that squirrel—he has "tripped" his last breaker.

Ravena Man Named

Albany, N. Y., June 13 (AP)—Earl Loucks of nearby Ravena today was named safety coordinator for the New York State Grange and will spearhead a campaign to cut down on accidents on the highways, the farm and the home. Loucks, a deputy State Grange master, was appointed by Leland D. Smith, Brasher Falls, head of the statewide farm organization. The campaign, Smith said, will be geared for special emphasis during Farm Safety Week, July 21-27, with each of the 878 community units of the Grange participating.

Repercussions

planes, and two of them were shot down. The U. S. Navy announcement made no mention of Nationalist Chinese planes.

The Nationalist Air Force on Formosa termed the Peiping claim groundless. It said Nationalist planes on a routine patrol over the Formost Strait encountered "ineffectual" ground fire off Swatow, and all planes returned to base safely.

Navy officials here said the incident could result in diplomatic representations — the Chinese charging a violation of their air space and the United States countering with a protest against an unprovoked attack on an American aircraft.

Labeled Incident

The United States and Red China do not maintain diplomatic relations, but have handled some exchanges through the British.

The messages from the 7th fleet, which had operational control of the force including the carrier Hornet, referred to yesterday's happenings as an "incident." The Hornet also reported that after the slightly damaged American plane returned to its mother carrier, the training exercises underway at the time of the incident were resumed.

The unexcited attitude of the Navy Department was reflected in the statement on the incident issued late yesterday afternoon at the Pentagon. The Navy conceded at the outset that the American pilot was westward, that is nearer to the China coast, than the course plotted for him.

8 Miles From Coast

The Navy reported that the incident occurred about eight miles from the coast. The China mainland along the Formosa Straits is frequently indented. Small islands and promontories jut out into the straits and it would be difficult for anyone, particularly the pilot of a jet plane, to determine accurately how far he was at any time from the main line of the coast.

Significant of the Navy's intention to avoid provoking an argument with the Chinese Reds in the area was the Navy statements comment that immediately after the Red battery opened fire, the American pilot changed his course to the eastward, which would have taken him in the direction of Formosa.

Catholics Warned Again on Graham

New York, June 13 (AP)—Catholics are being warned again about attending evangelist Billy Graham's crusade in Madison Square Garden.

The warning—the second in seven weeks—came from the Rev. Richard Ginder, editor of "Our Sunday Visitor," a national Catholic weekly.

Father Ginder said some Catholics had mistakenly taken the view that their church had given Graham's preaching "a mild sort of approval."

To correct such assumptions, he is publishing an editorial saying:

"We are tolerant and friendly to Billy Graham and company just as we are to the Lutherans, Presbyterians and Jehovah's witnesses."

Charge Is Reduced Against Stork Owner

New York, June 13 (AP)—The gun-waving charge against Stork Club proprietor Sherman Billingsley was reduced from felonious assault to simple assault yesterday by Magistrate Joseph A. Martinis after a hearing.

Billingsley, 57, was ordered to stand trial on the misdemeanor charge, but no date was set. A misdemeanor charge is less serious than a felony charge.

Billingsley testified that the complainant—house painter Murray Beskin—threatened to beat him up, but the magistrate refused to order an assault complaint against Beskin.

The court case grew out of a row in front of Billingsley's plush home on the East Side (33 E. 69th St.) on Tuesday.

Talks on Refugees

Henry Bloss, director of Hungarian Relief operation at Camp Kilmer, New Jersey, gave a most interesting talk on "Operation Mercy" during which over 33,000 Hungarian refugees were received and "processed" through the camp.

Originally set up to handle 5,000 refugees, Mr. Bloss, who is in charge of the Eastern Area of the National Red Cross covering a seven-state area, told how the program was expanded and carried out by the army and how the Red Cross assisted in that program.

Placing the operation in the class of "another disaster" program he paid a high tribute to the 1,526 volunteers who assisted in the program and who put in a total of 89,770 work hours. Citing some of the "statistics" of the program he said 10,043 long distance phone calls were processed for refugees to relatives in this country; $6,800 was spent in postage; 150 volunteers from Red Cross chapters were used every day of the program; 375 tons of clothing was unpacked, racked and given out; 22,000 pairs of shoes were issued and at the peak of the activities shoes were given out at the rate of 150 pairs an hour.

Lauds Public Help

He praised the manner in which the public received the refugees and gave assistance. Refugees at first were skeptical and doubtful about the United States and fearful that after the first good treatment the officials would revert to the abuses of communistic countries. Mr. Bloss said they at first doubted our sincerity but as time went on they came to trust Americans and began to lose their fear.

An appeal for clothing resulted in carloads of clothing which was sorted, arranged and issued by the Red Cross.

Mr. Bloss spoke of the type of persons who came as refugees, saying that the greater percentage was well educated and that many of them were extremely well educated and would become valuable assets to the life of the United States.

Called Asset to U. S.

In summing up the refugee situation he said the Hungarians who came to this country would become valuable citizens, be an asset to our economy and their letters back to Hungary would have great weight in letting the people of that Communist controlled area know that the United States was not like what the Communists had taught.

Through a card system which identifies each of the refugees, data is kept at Geneva, Switzerland, by which every refugee can be located when he or she moves to a new home. Through this system relatives may locate and keep in touch with relatives or friends in his country.

Mr. Bloss said at one time when a call was issued for a group of refugees to go to Spokane, Washington, only a few responded. The reason, they had been told that this was the "Siberia" of America. Another group asked to go to Texas were afraid to accept. They had been told by the Communists that Texas was infested with Indians who would murder them. These Communist teachings however were rapidly dispelled through the assistance and help granted all refugees.

Still Must Pay School Tax Despite Defeat of Budget

Albany, N. Y., June 13 (AP)—Taxpayers in a suburban school district will be required to pay a school tax even though they rejected a $1,784,000 education budget.

The board of education in the Guilderland Central School District is invoking a rarely used provision of the state law to raise most of the funds originally sought.

A provision of the law says: "If the inhabitants shall . . . refuse to vote the sum estimated necessary . . . the board of education may levy a tax . . . in like manner as if the tax had been voted . . ."

Guilderland district voters rejected the proposed 1957-58 budget on May 7 by a vote of 645 - 272. They ordered the school board to submit a revised version within 30 days.

John Jehu, head of the education department's law division, said yesterday that the statute under which the Guilderland board acted had been approved to implement the state constitutional mandate for "the maintenance and support of a system of free common schools, wherein all the children of this state may be educated."

The Guilderland board has set a tax rate of $57.88 per $1,000 of assessed valuation of real property to raise $1,568,000 for the expenses covered by the state law. These include salaries of teachers, heat, light, insurance, debt service and clerical and administrative expenses.

Most Alcoholics Can Be Cured Is Report

Binghamton, N. Y., June 13 (AP)—A psychiatrist says that 50 to 75 per cent of alcoholics can be rehabilitated.

Dr. Ruth Fox of New York city said yesterday that rehabilitation was possible only after a person decided he needed help. This, she said, usually happens after he had "hit bottom."

Dr. Fox also told a meeting of the State Council of Committees on Alcoholism that about six per cent of America's male population suffered from the disease. She said there were about a fifth as many women alcoholics.

Dr. Fox sai dthat alcoholism was not limited to any "social or intellectual stratum." Most of her patients, she said, were very intelligent, and that the intelligence quotient among them averaged 122.

Speculation Is SAC May Have Use for Sampson

Geneva, N. Y., June 13 (AP)—A flying visit to the old Sampson Air Force Base near here yesterday by a team of specialists from the Strategic Air Command headquarters at Omaha, Neb., has set off speculation about the future of the base.

The visit by the 322 officers and civilians, who arrived in an air force C-97, was described as a "routine inspection trip" by Major Richard W. Smithson, officer in charge at the base.

The Syracuse Post-Standard, however, reported that the team had visited the base to study the possibility of its use by the SAC.

Sampson was closed by the air force as a training base last fall. Only a caretaker force remains now. It was originally built by the navy as a training center during World War 2.

Newsmen were barred from the base when the SAC party arrived yesterday. This was a departure from the heady access newsmen have had to the base since it was discontinued as a training center.

The Post Standard said that neither base personnel nor the Pentagon would comment on the purpose of the visit.

The newspaper, however, quoted a public relations officer at SAC headquarters in Omaha as saying the team was surveying the base for possible use. He also told the newspaper that the survey was "routine."

The SAC now operates a strategic bomber base at Plattsburgh, about 325 miles northeast of Sampson, and is preparing to establish other facilities at Griffiss Air Force Base at Rome.

feel hurt over what happened in my own community.

"I feel hurt because of all the people I helped finance their projects not a ---- ---- one said 'we never had that experience with Dave Beck.'"

Beck seemed resentful that benefactors of his charities have not come publicly to defend him.

"Why don't you check with the American Legion who I helped get $15,000, or the YWCA ($15,000), the YMCA ($17,000), the Children's Orthopedic Hospital ($15,000), or Bellarmine High School in Tacoma ($19,000), or a lot of other groups?" he asked.

No Fronts, He Declares

As to anyone buying property in his behalf, Beck declared, "nobody fronts for me."

But he said if a friend or a relative had a chance to make a good investment he saw no reason why he shouldn't loan them the money for it. He said "it's a lie that money comes back to me."

Then the question came up of his use of the Fifth Amendment at the Senate Rackets Committee hearings. "If you answer one question, you have to answer them all and you may drag in other people. . . . I acted on the advice of my attorney."

What will he do after retirement?" "I've been successful in my personal investments," he replied. "Taking care of them will keep me busy."

Newsmen pressed him to name who he believed should succeed him. The Teamster boss laughed, saying several men are capable of holding down the job. But why should he name one man and make three others angry at him?

Some Possibilities

Newsmen suggested the following as possibilities:

Jimmy Hoffa of Detroit; William A. Lee and John T. O'Brien of Chicago; Einar Mohn and Frank Brewster of Seattle and Joseph Diviny of San Francisco, all members of the Teamsters' executive committee.

Beck had something favorable to say about every one. Nothing more. But he did add he didn't think Brewster wanted the job.

Japs Report U. S. Rejects Test Ban

Tokyo, June 13 (AP)—The Foreign Office today announced that the United States has rejected Japan's request for suspension of the current nuclear tests in Nevada.

A Foreign Office spokesman said the American reply, a letter from U. S. Secretary of State Dulles, based the rejection on the contention that fallout from the explosions did not substantially endanger humans.

The spokesman called this reasoning "highly regrettable."

He said Dulles' letter also emphasized that continued testing of U. S. nuclear weapons was necessary to maintain peace and deter aggression.

Station Wagons Boost Registrations in State

Albany, N. Y., June 13, (AP) — Motor Vehicle Commissioner Joseph P. Kelly reported today that station wagons accounted for much of the upswing in registrations.

Kelly said that registrations through March totaled 4,276,078, a gain of 28,356 from the same period a year ago. In 1956, registrations hit an all-time high of 4,976,324.

Passenger car registrations slumped from 3,517,302 to 3,508,349 by the end of March. A decline in registrations had been expected because of the new compulsory insurance and safety inspection programs.

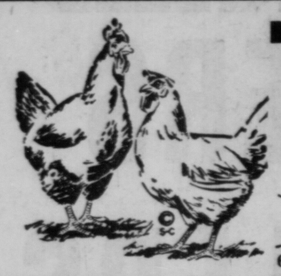

Commercial registrations totaled 416,635—a drop of 3,809.

Suburban registrations for station wagons hit 232,370 by the end of March—a gain of 41,052 over the total a year ago.

Speaker Reports Communicable Diseases on Wane

A "tremendous decrease" in the freqeuncy in communicable diseases was noted by Dr. Hollis Ingraham, first deptuy commissioner of the New York State Department of Health, at a luncheon held by the Ulster County Health Department Tuesday at Williams Lake Hotel.

Dr. Ingraham congratulated the Ulster County Health Department on its 10th anniversary and paid tribute to "the wonderful work of the nursing committees."

He noted population increase and said the number of people who will require services is rapidly getting greater.

Polio Declines

We have seen a tremendous decrease in the frequency in communicable diseases," Dr. Ingraham said noting that polio "had a very favorable year. Eleven cases reported this year, 56 cases in the corresponding period last year."

Dr. Ingraham said, "We must try to vaccinate just as soon as we can, as there is a tremendous backlog that we must take care of. We must do everything in our power to get as many immunized as we can."

He indicated that while communicable disease is under control "there is a job for all working in public to be constantly vigilant."

TB 'Still Problem'

Tuberculosis, "while still a problem," has dropped 1.22 per all deaths on rate basis. "We also believe that with the great increase of home care of tuberculosis patients we need more nursing care. The possibility of biological warfare also is to be considered." Tuberculosis is still "an important disease," he said.

Dr. Ingraham noted the increased costs for services and said, "We will go ahead working for the good of the American public. The progress in public health in Ulster county is most commendable."

Mrs. William Cruickshank, mistress of ceremonies, introduced Mrs. George Bedell, president of the Shandaken Nursing Committee, who gave a report on the activities of nursing committees throughout the county.

PUBLIC HEALTH NURSES HONORED—Two staff nurses of the Ulster County Health Department, Miss Anne Cassidy and Mrs. Mary O'Neil, with a combined total of 70 years of service to the county, were honored at a luncheon at the Williams Lake Hotel on Tuesday. Seated, l to r, Mrs. George Bedell, president of the Presidents Group of the Nursing Committees of Ulster County; Dr. Hollis Ingraham, first deputy commissioner of health of State Department of Health; Mrs. William Cruickshank, lay member of the Nursing Committee, who served as mistress of ceremonies; Miss Mary Parker, director of nurses of the Bureau of Public Health Nursing, and Mrs. O'Neil. Standing, l to r, the Rev. David C. Gaise, pastor of the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer; Miss Esther Schisa, director of nurses of the Ulster County Health Department; Dr. Virgil DeWitt, vice-president of the health department; Mrs. Theodor Oxholm, first president of the Nursing Committee of Ulster County; Dr. Dudley W. Hargrave, Ulster county commissioner of health, and Miss Cassidy. (Freeman photo)

Praises Nurses

Dr. Virgil DeWitt, of New Paltz, praised the work of the public health nurses and introduced Miss Esther Schisa, director of nurses of the Ulster County Health Department, who distributed the 10th annual report of the nursing division.

Also introduced were the public health nurses, the dental hygienist, and regional public health nurse, Miss Lillian Johnston, and students assigned to the nursing division for field experience.

Miss Schisa presented sterling silver plates to Mrs. Mary O'Neil and Miss Anne Cassidy, "who combined have given about 70 years of service to Ulster county in the field of public health nursing.

Miss Mary Parker, director of the Bureau of Public Health Nursing of the New York State Department of Health, told of the demand for more services to the older age group with chronic diseases.

Cites Nurse Shortage

She noted a trend in the development of parent groups in the community and stressed rehabilitation in all fields of public health whose personnel, Miss Parker said, must take part in the care of the mentally ill. Miss Parker noted a shortage of nurses for all community needs and said young women should be influenced to join the nursing profession.

Dr. Dudley W. Hargrave, Ulster county health commissioner, introduced Dr. Ingraham.

The invocation and benediction were delivered by the Rev. David C. Gaise, pastor of the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer.

DETAILS OF THE MAYFLOWER are speculative. There are no authentic contemporary paintings or drawings of her. A fairly clear picture can be formed from 17th century English records and writings of Mayflower passengers. These drawings of the Mayflower's rig, her profile in cross-section, and deck plan, are by G. H. Davis, famous maritime artist of the Illustrated London News. They differ in some details from William A. Baker's design for the Mayflower II which was built in England and sent over the Atlantic in 1957. Davis drawings © 1957, King Features Syndicate, Inc. INSIDE THE MAYFLOWER

with the Pilgrims

By CLARK KINNAIRD

American historian and biographer; author of "Your America Day-by-Day," "George Washington: A Pictorial Biography," and "500 Americans."

THE Mayflower was preceded to America's shores by more than forty-four English ships, which carried at least 3,000 English colonists—most of whom came to stay. Yet the Mayflower and her hundred passengers became the popular symbols of the daring and fortitude that planted English-speaking peoples on American shores, and opened the way to attainment of religious, political and economic freedom in this country by persons from all nations.

There are hundreds of books about the Mayflower and its passage in 1620, yet the ship remains a greater historical mystery than Columbus' Santa Maria.

"No one knows for certain where she [the Mayflower] was built. No one can be sure about her dimensions. It is impossible to be exact about her crew. And the ultimate fate of the Mayflower is so uncertain as to permit certain fables about it to look like truth," Henry Justin Smith summed up in a book, The Master of the Mayflower, in which he sifted and checked all references to the ship.

For nearly 300 years after its celebrated voyage, even the Mayflower's captain was unidentified. It was finally proven to have been Christopher Jones, who took command in 1608 and in 1620 was the ship's quarter-owner.

The Pilgrims who wrote of the voyage did not mention the captain by name. Careless early chroniclers identified him as Captain Thomas Jones, and confused him with a notorious pirate. They fostered belief that the piratical Jones landed the Pilgrims in New England instead of Virginia because he was bribed to do so.

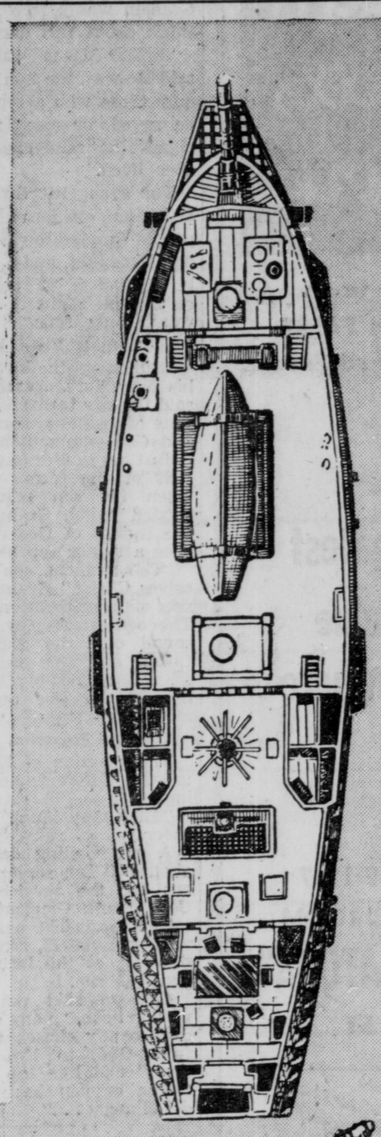

Because of overcrowding, many of the passengers had to endure wretched conditions. The company of Pilgrim exiles in Holland had been supposed to make the trip across the sea in two ships. In addition to chartering the Mayflower, Pilgrims bought a smaller (60-ton) vessel, the Speedwell. She proved a bad bargain; she sprang a leak at Plymouth, Eng., and had to be abandoned. Taking some of her passengers aboard the Mayflower caused food, fuel and potable supplies, and tempers, to become short in the long voyage.

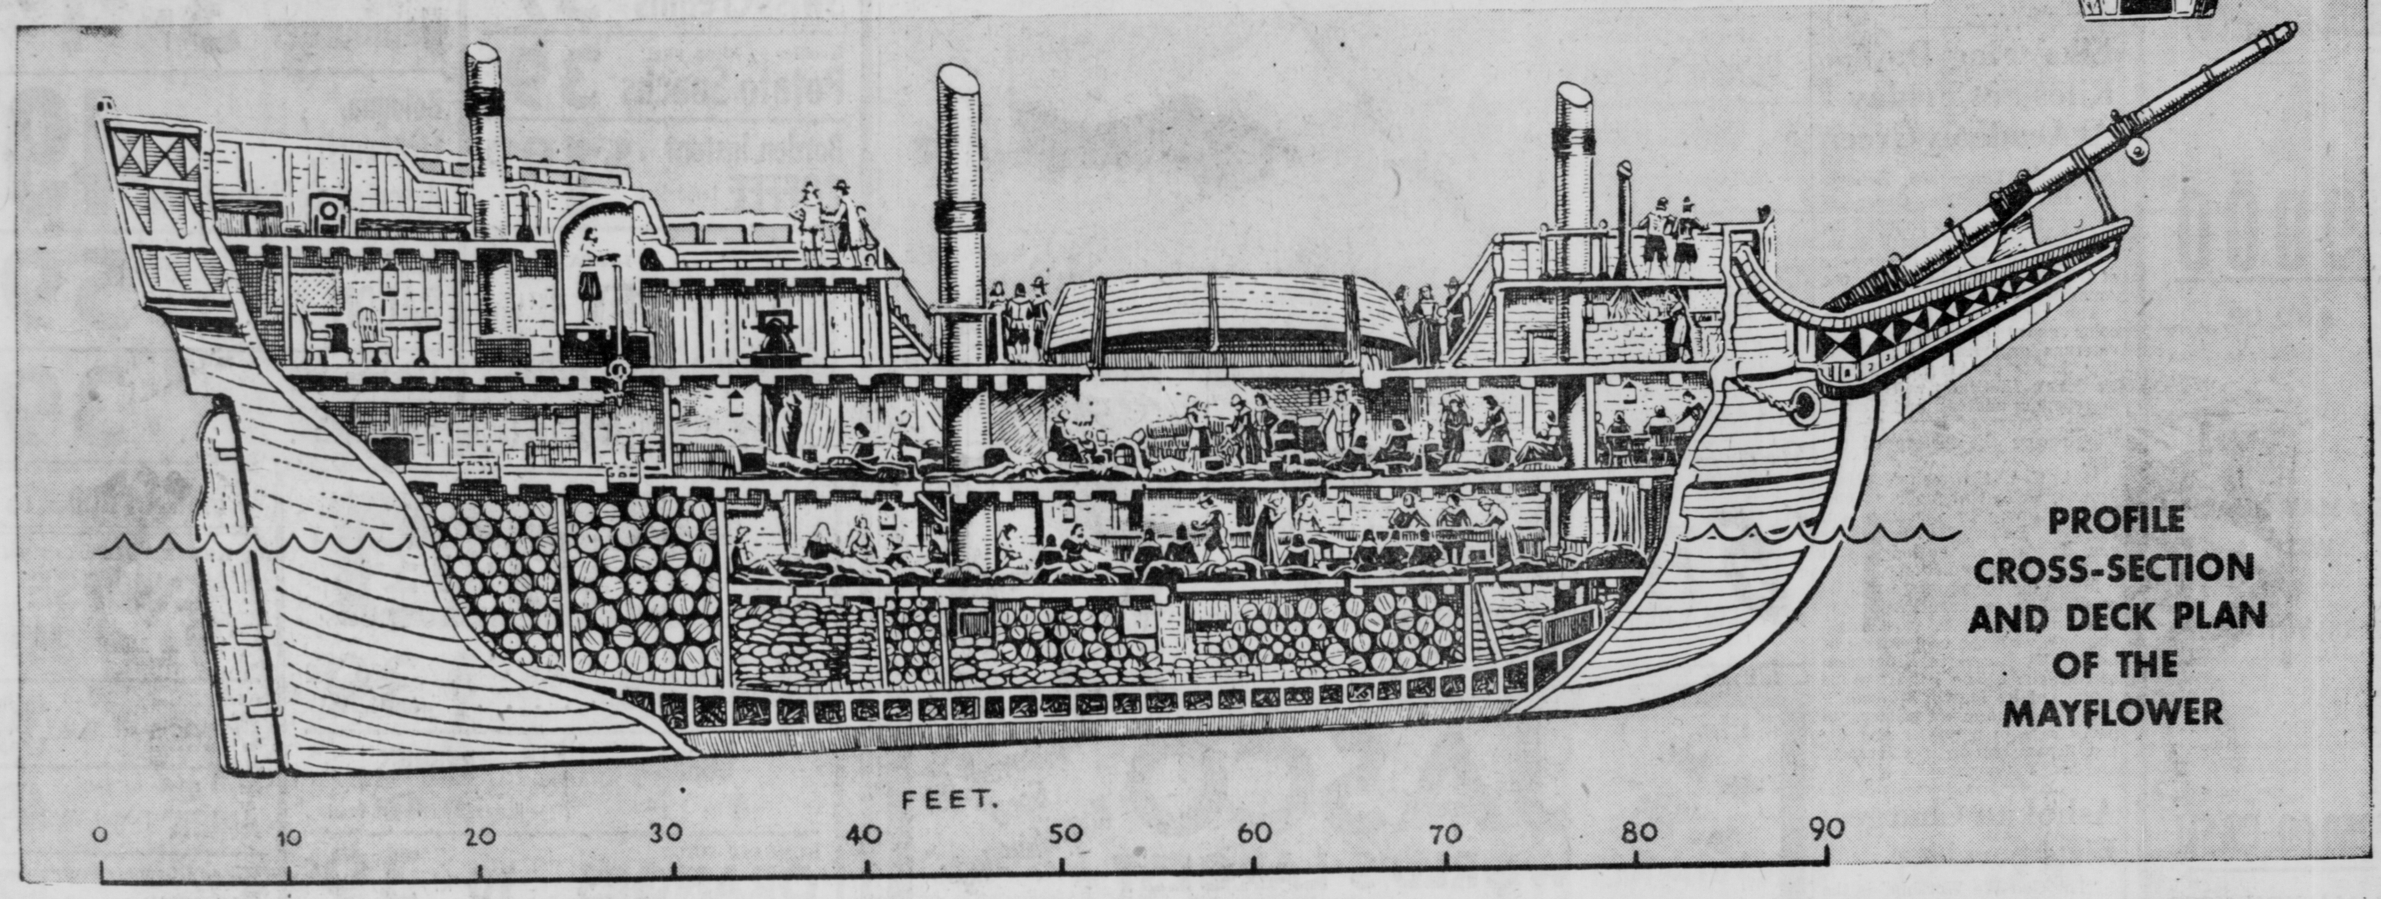

She lumbered along at no better than 2½ nautical miles an hour at her best; she was 64 days reaching Cape Cod.

The passenger list is said to have been 102 at the start, but this total includes at least two crew members. One person died during the voyage; a child was born during the passage and one born on the ship at Cape Cod. John Alden, who sailed in the crew (as a cooper), became a "Pilgrim Father" only after landing at Plymouth, Mass. Christopher Martin, another signer of the Mayflower Compact, was a ship's officer. It seems 18 of the passengers were servants and "bound" boys or girls, not freemen.

The rations were the customary salt or smoked beef or pork (six pounds for each four persons on "meat days" — three days a week); bread, dried peas, cheese, hard biscuit, oatmeal, honey, cabbage, turnips, onions, beer and, for the prevention of scurvy, fresh limes and lemons. Exhaustion of supplies of food and drink, particularly beer, prompted the decision of the leaders of the Pilgrims to land at Cape Cod instead of going on to Virginia, as originally planned. Women passengers, forced to do with salt water and with little privacy for using it, hurried ashore at Cape Cod, heedless of danger from savages, to enjoy the luxury of fresh water in washing clothes and themselves.

The voyage was the second to Cape Cod for one of the ship's mates, Robert Coppin; he had visited it in a whaler crew. Coppin's faulty memory delayed the ship's finding the bay at Plymouth. The location already bore that name, having been given it by Capt. John Smith, when he explored the coast in 1614. Smith also named the region New England.

PROFILE CROSS-SECTION AND DECK PLAN OF THE MAYFLOWER

THE MAYFLOWER is believed to have had the usual high forecastle, housing the galley (kitchen) or perhaps the crew. Then followed the waist deck, pierced by the main hatch, upon which the long-boat rode.

Below the first hold was stowed a shallop in sections. On this deck were a dozen "cabins," or canvas enclosures, for a few passengers; most of the rest of the Pilgrims pitched their beds and belongings openly in the holds. (In the lowest hold, unventilated, dimly lit, almost without heat, 40 men, women and children were crowded among spars and other ship's gear.)

Under the poop there were four substantial cabins, occupied by the Brewster, Mullins, Hopkins and Martin families. Christopher Jones, the captain, and quarter-owner of the ship, kept the best accommodations for himself: the Great Cabin aft, from which he rigidly excluded his passengers.

The bottom compartments of the ship were the cargo hold containing tools for the settlement, lead, iron, etc., the powder-magazine, the storerooms for casks of fresh water, barrels of biscuit. The hold farther forward held other food stores. Ahead was the sail locker, with crew quarters above. The Mayflower probably had a cannon or two on her decks. There were pirates in those days.

COMPACT OF THE PILGRIMS

MALE PASSENGERS of the Mayflower, signed on Nov. 11, 1620, a compact, which is revered as the earliest agreement for democratic government in this country, although Jamestown colonists had instituted a representative legislative assembly in July 1619.

William Bradford, the Pilgrim father, explained that the Compact was improvised to put a rein on the dissident passengers who threatened to strike out for themselves when the Pilgrim leaders decided to land in New England instead of going on to Virginia. The signers formed a "Body Politick, for our better Ordering & Preservation & Furtherance of ye ends aforesaid; and by Vertue hereof to enact, constitute, and frame such just & equall lawes, ordinances, Acts, Constitutions & Offices, from Time to Time, as shall be thought most meete & convenient for ye generall good of ye Colonie, unto which we promise all due submission and obedience."

The signatures of some of these, plus those of Peregrine White, who was born aboard the Mayflower, and Dorothy May, William Bradford's wife who was drowned at Cape Cod, are reproduced here (right) from documents.

RELICS of Mayflower passengers preserved today include this chest and other furniture; the sword and musket-barrel of Myles Standish (shown in the old drawing of him above); a few household utensils; journals; letters.

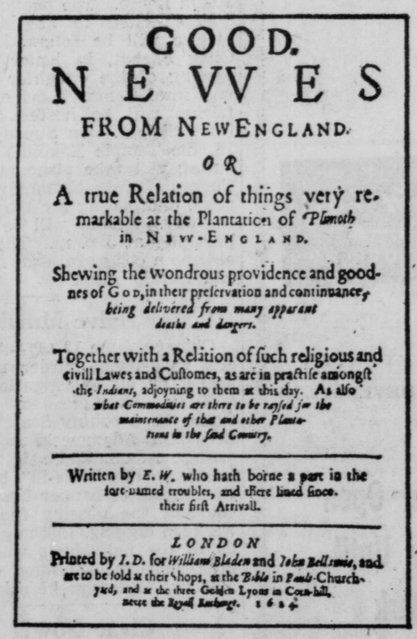

DESIGNS of chairs prized as possessions of Mayflower passengers. That at left belonged to Elder William Brewster. John Alden, the cooper by trade, is credited with having turned cabinetmaker and built chests, etc.

PILGRIM Hall at Plymouth exhibits the cradle (↑) of Peregrine White, the son born to William and Susanna (Fuller) White on the Mayflower at Cape Cod. Mrs. Stephen Hopkins bore a son, named Oceanus, at sea.

PILGRIMS LIVED ASHORE at first in dugouts and lean-tos. These were replaced by wigwams of bark on frames of boughs, plastered with mud, later with slab houses having thatched roofs. They never built log cabins.

Graham Offers Think Challenge To Garden Crowd

New York, June 13 (AP)—Billy Graham wants New Yorkers to think about this question:

"Either Jesus was who He said He was, the Son of God and only those who accept Him will be saved, or else He was the biggest liar and charlatan that ever lived."

The evangelist threw out the either-or challenge to 17,000 people in Madison Square Garden last night, and a catch came in his voice, "if people would only think about it . . . if they would only reflect."

Begins Fifth Week

Launching the fifth week of his New York crusade, Graham said the city teems with prodigal sons who have gone astray—and God wants them back.

Just as in the parable which tells of the father celebrating when his son returned from wasted living, Graham said, so the legions of God react whenever a sinner repents.

"The moment one person receives Christ," Graham said, "it sets off a celebration in heaven. The orchestras play, the bands sound out, the flags are unfurled and the angels rejoice . . . it makes big black headlines, 'John Doe repents!' and all heaven sings."

World Reaction Differs

The reaction of the world is usually different, he said, adding:

"They may laugh at you and sneer."

A big visiting delegation of about 800 Tennesseans was present for the service, including Gov. Frank Clement.

The evangelist based his sermon on Luke 15, recounting the parables of the lost sheep and prodigal son.

Graham said that like the prodigal son, "many of you have deliberately chosen to go away from God, to live your own lives," and like the lost sheep, "some of you have just wandered away . . ."

Mrs. Levine will be hostess of the Oneg Shebat. On Sunday, June 16, the Temple Emanuel annual outing will take place at Camp Turkey Point, beginning at 1 p. m. and lasting for the rest of the day. May Solve Murder

Chicago, June 13 (AP)—A banker's gang-style murder may be solved by an investigation of a $600,000 shortage in county funds, Cook county State's Atty. Benjamin Adamowski said yesterday. Adamowski said he had found a "direct tie-in" between the slaying of banker Leon Marcus and the missing funds. "If we keep digging, this might lead us to the individuals who were interested in disposing of Mr. Marcus," Adamowski said.

Beef, Turkey Top Buys For Father's Day Meal

(By The Associated Press)

Even the supermarkets are joining in the merchandising promotion for Father's Day this year, although their part is mainly in protecting Pop's pocketbook.

Beef will be the most popular item in supermarket and neighborhood grocery "specials" this weekend, and chuck roast, the least expensive cut of beef, will be prominently featured in many places. In addition, one chain will advertise stuffed turkeys at the normal price for eviscerated birds and another will have small turkeys at the price normally charged for larger turkeys.

Good Freezer Buy

Still another chain will have a special on the round section of beef at 49 cents a pound. People with freezers can get about 70 pounds of steaks, roasts, stew meat and other portions cut to order.

Total supplies of beef are expected to be lower this year than in 1956, however, while supplies of pork seem to be on their way up. This is expected to bring eventually higher beef prices and lower tags for pork.

Fresh new cabbage, streaming from New Jersey and Virginia fields in increasing numbers, are rated as the outstanding vegetable buy of the week. The round, leafy vegetable has been in good supply in recent months with good growing weather in the various cabbage-producing areas.

Also outstanding this week are radishes, last fall's Maine potatoes from storabe bins, Romaine and Big Boston lettuce and both bunched and topped beets. Listed as good buys are snap beans, cucumbers, asparagus, new potatoes from California and South Carolina growing areas, and eastern Iceberg lettuce. The last-named, however, reportedly shows a wide range of quality and condition, so should be appraised carefully.

Rhubarb Tops Fruits

Rhubarb, still plentiful after a good growing season, again tops the list of bargains at fruit counters. Strawberries from such eastern centers as New Jersey, Pennsyvania and New York are rated as good buys, but these, too, show variances in quality and condition. Oranges, grapefruit and limes from Florida, and California's lemons and oranges also are good buys. Cantaloupe is somewhat lower this week, produce men say, but still is figured as only a moderate buy.

Small supplies of cherries, apricots, plums and peaches are trickling into market from California, but are in the luxury class in price. So are blueberries and peaches from Georgia and North Carolina.

SAUGERTIES NEWS

Chamber to Discuss Business Directory

Saugerties, June 13—Reports on the annual membership campaign and the publication of a classified directory of Saugerties business establishments will be heard at the regular meeting of Saugerties Area Chamber of Commerce Wednesday, June 19, at 8:30 p. m. in the Exempt's rooms of Saugerties Municipal Building.

New members signed up since the beginning of the drive June 5 will be welcomed at this meeting.

Final preparations for the publication of the business directory will be outlined.

Malden-West Camp Vols Amend By-Laws

Saugerties, June 13 — Three amendments to the by-laws of Malden-West Camp Fire Company were approved Tuesday night following the final reading of the changes at the regular meeting held in Malden fire station.

Articles approved include the changing of the annual meeting to the second Tuesday in January at 7:30 p. m. Another new ruling specified that any member seeking exemption papers after serving his full term, must qualify by attending at least six meetings per year for the last five years prior to filing exemption papers. Approved excuses for failure to attend will be accepted.

The third article approved specifies that any member in arrears of dues or fines for six months will be notified in writing and given 30 days to make up the arrears or be subject to immediate expulsion from the company.

The company authorized Charles Dailey, company representative to the Ulster County Volunteer Firemen's Association to vote against the proposal to assess each company in the association $25 to defray the costs of the convention and parade each year. The proposal will be presented at the next association meeting at Plattekill Tuesday night.

The corresponding secretary was directed to send a letter of thanks to David Hildebrandt, plumbing and heating contractor of Saugerties for his donation of equipment for the Malden fire station.

Authorization was given to enter one of the company's two fire trucks in both the Saugerties July 4 parade and the Ulster County Volunteer Firemen's parade in the town of Ulster July 13.

Clarence Gardiner was designated chairman of a committee to secure information on the construction of a chimney at the West Camp fire station and brick veneering both fire stations.

President Luther Emerick announced that another class in the basic firemen's training course has been scheduled for Wednesday, June 19 in the Malden station at 7:30 p. m. Winfred Snyder, Ulster county fire coordinator, is conducting the classes.

The award of the month was presented to Joseph Hinchey of Fish Creek.

Former Senator George Serious

Atlanta, June 13 (AP)—Walter F. George, President Eisenhower's special ambassador to NATO and a former Georgia senator, is in serious condition with a coronary disease at Emory University Hospital.

An attending physician said the 79-year-old statesman was suffering with "coronary atherosclerosis, or hardening of the coronary artery which nourishes the heart."

The physician, who asked that his name not be used, said George was receiving anti-coagulants, drugs used to prevent the blood from forming clots.

George arrived in Atlanta by train from Washington yesterday and entered the hospital for a series of diagnostic tests.

The physician did not indicate how long George would be in the hospital.

In Senate 34 Years

Before entering the hospital the statesman said his future as an ambassador to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization would depend on the results of the examinations. There was no immediate indication, however, when that decision would be reached.

George served in the Senate for 34 years and was a powerful voice for peace during the time he was chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. He did not seek re-election in 1956.

Phoenicia Playhouse Announces Schedule Of Summer Plays

Five Broadway hit comedies, two dramas, one mystery, and one folk-musical are scheduled for Thes Playhouse, Phoenicia-Chichester, this summer.

"The Teahouse of the August Moon," will open the premiere season July 2-7. John Patrick's captivating and amusing comedy, one of the most successful plays of all time, made a clean sweep of the drama awards and won both the Pulitzer Prize and the New York Critics Circle Award for the Best American Play when it first opened on Broadway.

"Years Ago," will play July 9-14. A delightful family comedy by Ruth Gordon, it recalls the nostalgic era between the late gay nineties and the early roaring twenties.

"Dark of the Moon" will open July 16 and play through July 21. Howard Richardson's and William Berney's folk-musical has been called by theater historians as "a Classic of the American Stage." It retells in a blend of humor, drama and music the Barbara Allen legend famous throughout the Smokey Mountains, and contains such popular folk songs as "The Ballad of Barbara Allen" and "Down in the Valley."

"Speaking of Murder" by TV's popular writing team, Audrey and William Roos, will play from August 23-28. The authors of "The Life of Riley" have written 10 mystery novels and their recent Broadway suspense-thriller earned rave reviews for Estelle Winwood and Brenda de Banzie in New York this season.

"Orphus Descending," Tennessee Williams' new drama, presented this season on Broadway by Producers' Theater, is scheduled to play from July 30 through August 4. The script, by the author of this season's movie sensation, "Baby Doll," is the product of one of America's most gifted writers.

"The Loud Red Patrick" is the attraction scheduled for Aug. 6-11. Arthur Kennedy and David Wayne co-starred in this hilarious turn-of-the-century comedy on Broadway this season.

Paul Kielar, administrative producer, announced that he is leaving Aug. 13-18 open in order to schedule the latest Broadway comedy release available at that time.

"The Children's Hour," Lillian Hellman's powerful drama that ran 691 performances when it first played on Broadway, will be staged Aug. 20-25. The play is one of the great successes of a distinguished writer of the American stage. Because of its controversial nature, the producer advised that drama is not recommended for children and only adults will be admitted during its scheduled run.

To close their first season, the Playhouse has chosen London's smash hit, "See How They Run." One of the funniest farces ever written, Phillip King's comedy has been one of the most successful plays in the summer theater circuit throughout the country. It will open Aug. 27 and play through Labor Day.

Season tickets and single admissions to all the shows are now available at the theater box-office.

DRIVING ACROSS THE COUNTRY UNCHAPERONED

Dear Mrs. Post: A very good friend of mine is driving to the West Coast on business. Before I knew of his going, I made plans to fly to the Coast to visit relatives for several weeks. We will be going about the same time and he suggested that I cancel my plane reservations and drive with him. I would like to do this very much as it would not only save me plane fare but would also give me an opportunity of seeing more of the country, but neither of us want to do anything that would taint our good names. Would the laws of propriety sanction our traveling this distance together?

Answer: Without a chaperone, I am sorry to say that you two traveling alone would certainly risk criticism.

Who Serves?

Dear Mrs. Post: Will you please tell me what is proper in the following situation: When a man and girl go to a Chinese restaurant and order a dinner for two and the food is brought in a large covered serving dish and placed on the table between them, who is supposed to do the serving? I say it is the girl's place to do this and my friend says that the man should do the serving as he is the host.

Answer: The man, as host, asks the girl if she would like to do the serving. She then may do so or say, "Oh no, please, you do it."

Inviting Friends' Hosts

Dear Mrs. Post: A couple we know are visiting friends of theirs in our town. I would like to invite them to dinner while they are here and I was wondering if it is necessary to invite the couple with whom they are staying, too. While we do know their hosts, they are not personal friends of ours. I would appreciate hearing from you on this matter.

Answer: It is more courteous to invite wour friends' hosts if you conveniently can, but it would not be rude if you can't.

* * *

How should one eat a baked potato? Is it good manners to break crackers into soup? Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail. However, her leaflet E-16, "Table Rules of Importance," will answer this and other questions on eating problems. To obtain a copy, send 10 cents in coin to Dept. EP, c/o The Freeman, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y.

St. Joseph's Church Is Scene for Wedding Of Amelia Colon and Henry Auer on June 9

MRS. HENRY AUER
(Tom Reynolds photo)

On Sunday, June 9, at St. Joseph's Church, Miss Amelia Colon, daughter of Mrs. Mercedes Colon of 89 Cedar street and the late Mr. Colon, became the bride of Henry Auer, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Auer of Quarryville.

The Rev. Alfred Glancy officiated.

Given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Leo Amell, the bride wore a white lace bridal gown fashioned with a scoop neckline edged with iridescent sequins, fitted bodice and long sleeves ending in points over the wrists. Her bouffant skirt of French lace over summer satin was ballerina length.

A fingertip veil of silk illusion was gathered to a crown of pleated nylon tulle and tiny seed pearls. The bride carried a prayer book with a white orchid cascade and showers of delphinium.

Mrs. August Bonnit was the matron of honor for her sister. She wore a ballerina gown styled with a strapless fitted lace bodice with a nylon fichu over the shoulders and her headpiece was a crown of seed pearls with silk shoulder length veiling to match the gown. She carried a cascade bouquet of orchids, gladioli and yellow carnations with yellow ribbon.

Serving as bridesmaids were Nilda Colon, sister of the bride and Carol DuBois. They wore gowns of lace and nylon in ballerina length. Their skirts were accented with cascading lace over hooped taffeta. Their hats were identical to that of the honor attendant. The bridesmaids carried cascade bouquets of pink gladioli with blue carnations.

Miss Anita Carter was the flower girl while Raymond Amell nephew of the bride, served as ring bearer.

August Bonnit was best man and ushers included Edwin Topple and Jack Mertes.

The bride is a graduate of Kingston High School and was employed, prior to her marriage, by Bantam Toy Company in Kingston.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Saugerties High School and is employed by Berzel's Mushroom Farm in Malden.

Following a wedding trip, the couple will make their home in Palenville.

Stolen Bonds Found

Miami, Fla., June 13 (AP)—An oceanfront plot owned by television star Arthur Godfrey has yielded slightly more than $100,000 in stolen stocks and bonds. Police said yesterday they found $75,825 in non-negotiable war savings certificates and more than $25,000 in transferable utility stocks buried in a steel box 200 yards north of the Keinilworth Hotel, of which Godfrey also is part owner. Claims Soldiers Sterile After Experiment Work

Bridgeport, Conn., June 13 (AP)—A lawyer claimed today that at least a dozen soldiers who worked on a top secret wartime experiment are either sterile or have fathered deformed children as a result.

Atty. Raymond Lyddy represents four Connecticut soldiers. One of them is sterile, Lyddy says. Wives of the others have had six miscarriages, three deformed children ,and two apparently normal children.

He said the 100 or so members of the Tank Ordnance Company which worked on the project were warned that exposure to rays from the equipment could make them sterile. He said he only had informed on about 30 of the soldiers, but about half of those reported some trouble.

He said "the instances of sterility, malformations, and deformed children were just tremendous."

Asked to Make Probe

The New York Daily News, which first reported the story in a copyrighted dispatch from Washington, said Army Secretary Wilber Brucker has been asked to make a full investigation. The request came from the former company commander, Marshal White of Chicago.

The News said the experiment consisted of mounting brilliant arc lights on tanks to blind gunners. The operation was carried out in the Ninth Armored Division which was fighting along the Rhine.

About 456 of the tanks were sent into action, the News said, but they had only limited success in combat and the idea was dropped.

The News added that the lights were 13-million-candle-power carbon arc lamps, and "there is strong reason to believe that something more than carbon arc was involved."

Ike Completely Recovered: Doctor

Washington, June 13 (AP)—President Eisenhower's doctor today pronounced him "completely recovered" from his stomach upset.

The physician, Maj. Gen. Howard Snyder, reported the President "almost" recovered on Tuesday and again yesterday.

James C. Hagerty, presidential press secretary, told newsmen he had talked to Snyder this morning and "he says I can now take the word 'almost' out. He says the President has completely recovered from his stomach upset."

Eisenhower was stricken Sunday evening and was confined to bed all day Monday with what three attending physicians described as a "mild" case of stomach distress.

The doctors attributed the illness to "slight over indulgence" in some types of food.

Open Swimming At New Paltz Memorial Park

A brief dedication ceremony will mark the opening of the swimming pond at Mike Moriello Memorial Park at New Paltz Sunday at 2:30 p. m.

The pond, opening for its second season, will offer the facilities of a newly constructed bathhouse and many other recent improvements.

The facility was made possible through the efforts of an interested group of citizens who raised enough money in the community to purchase 11 acres of land with a three acre pond.

Another fund raising campaign in the past two years culminated in the building of the new bathhouse.

The program for the dedication will include an aquatic event, band numbers and short talks by Dr. Virgil DeWitt, first president of the board of directors of New Paltz Park and Recreation Association; Dr. Robert Reid, mayor of New Paltz and Fred H. DuBois Jr., superintendent.

Man Is Injured As Motorcycle Hits Parked Car

Milton Wiltsie, 33, of 23 St. Mary's street, was injured Wednesday night when his motorcycle struck a parked station wagon in front of 103 Hasbrouck avenue, police reported.

Officers Everett Emmick and Gilbert Gray reported Mr. Wiltsie suffered a laceration of the right knee and two contusions of the right shin and was treated at Kingston Hospital.

A police report at 9:07 p. m. said a 1954 station wagon, owned by Robert Brauer, 42, of 61 Ann street, parked in front of 103 Hasbrouck avenue, facing south, was struck by a 1936 motorcycle owned and operated by Mr. Wiltsie.

The cycle was headed south on Hasbrouck avenue when it ran into the left rear end of the station wagon, police said.

The officers reported the Brauer car, which sustained damage to the left rear fender, bumper, tailpipe, body and other possible hidden damages, was towed away.

Ship Taken in Tow

Auckland, New Zealand, June 13 (AP)—A crippled British ship with 673 persons aboard was taken in tow today after wallowing helplessly in heavy Pacific seas since yesterday. The British freighter Port MacQuarie got a towline aboard the 8,300-ton Captain Hobson 570 miles east of Auckland witout any difficulty. The two ships are expected in Auckland Monday.

Would Combine Tracks

New York, June 13 (AP)—The Erie and Lackawanna Railroads plan to seek permission from the Interstate Commerce Commission to combine trackage near Binghamton, N. Y., to be used for both passenger and freight service. The combined trackage would cover the 48-mile territory between Binghamton and a point 10 miles east of Elmira, N. Y. The railroads announced yesterday that the ICC application would be filed soon.

Big Quake Recorded

New York, June 13—A "very, very big earthquake" in the Aleutian Islands—described as the most severe since the great series of shocks there early this year—was recorded early today by seismograph instruments at Fordham University. The Rev. Joseph Lynch, seismologist, said tremors were recorded at 5:51.24 and 6:00.14 a. m. (EST) and were continuing afterward..

Loses Freedom Bid

Mexico City, June 13 (AP)—The man who assassinated Leon Trotsky has lost another bid for freedom. The First Circuit Court ruled yesterday Jacques Mornard cannot be freed from prison before his 20-year sentence is completed in 1960 because foreigners who enter Mexico illegally are not eligible for parole. Monard fatally injured the exiled Russian Bolshevik in 1940. His 20-year prison term was the maximum under Mexican law. He would have been eligible for parole in 1953, after serving two-thirds of his sentence, under ordinary Mexican practice.

Ready to Meet Demands

Tokyo, June 13 (AP) — An American Navy employe tonight placed a classified advertisement in a Tokyo newspaper indicating he is willing to meet the demands of extortionists who have threatened his four small children with death. The extortionists had demanded that Douglas Scott of Los Angeles pay them approximately $8,000 or his children would be cut "into little pieces." Scott, appealing publicly for help a week ago, said then, "I couldn't even raise $1,000 right now."

Flushed with anger he burst into a shop of an electrical outfitting and repairs company and snapped.

Mr. Whiffenbush—Didn't I ask you guys yesterday to send a man to my home to fix the front door bell that's been out of order? And didn't you solemnly promise to send somebody out there right away?

Manager—But, Mr. Whiffenbush, we did send one. I'm certain of it.

Then he called to a workman in the back of the shop.

Manager—Hey, Cokey, didn't you go out to Whiffenbush Lodge yesterday to attend to that job?

Cokey—Yes, sir. I went out there all right, and I rang the doorbell for about ten minutes, but nobody answered. Guess there was nobody home.

It was once announced that the devil was going out of business and would offer all tools for sale. On the night of the sale they were all attractively displayed, and a bad-looking lot they were—Malice, Hatred, Envy, Jealously, Sensuality and Deceit, and all other implements of evil were spread out, each marked with its price. Apart from the rest lay a harmless-looking, wedge-shaped tool, much worn, and priced higher than any of the others.

Someone—What is that.

Devil—That's Discouragement.

Someone—Why do you have it priced so high?

Devil—Because it is more useful to me than any of the others. I can pry open and get inside of man's consciousness with that when I could never get near him with any of the others, and once inside I can use it with nearly everybody, as very few people yet know it belongs to me.

It hardly need be added that the devil's price for discouragement was so high that it was never sold. He is still using it.

Several surprise names in the entertainment world are promised. There will be music and refreshments.

Assemblyman Hyman E. Mintz, of South Fallsburg, and Mrs. Sylvia Elias, of Woodbourne, who is chairman of the Sullivan County group, have veritably become the Festival's "Paul Reveres" in alerting the entire Catskill community to the cultural importance of having New York's first major music center in the area.

"Nothing culturally more vital has come to us in our time than this music festival which has won the unanimous acclaim of the country's foremost music critics," states Assemblyman Mintz. "And it is terribly important that all of us give it our fullest moral and financial support. This is a non-profit venture and its success at the box-office, in fact, its very existence as a going institution depends wholly upon all of us."

It is expected that when the various county committees are organized, a series of special night's in turn will be sponsored by each county to help swell the fete's receipts.

4-Week Season

A four week season has been set by the Festival this summer to run from July 4 through July 28. The inaugural program will find Igor Markevitch on the podium to conduct the Symphony of the Air in Beethoven's Ninth and Brahms' "Alto Rhapsody," with the assistance of the American Concert Choir. The program will be repeated Sunday afternoon. Eight Soloists of the Royal Danish Ballet, who made their debut in America to ecstatic reviews last year, take over for three nights, July 5, 6 and 7, in a different dance program each night.

A full stage production of the opera "Elektra," with Laszlo Halasz conducting, to be presented on July 11 and July 13, and repeated on July 19, shares the spotlight the second week with the triumphant return engagement of the Eugene O'Neill dance-drama, "Emporer Jones," which lights up the Festival stage on July 12 and July 14. Heiter Villa-Lobos, who composed the score, and Jose Limon, who choreographed the work, will both be on hand to reenact their original roles, that of conductor and dancer.

Leopold Stokowski illumines the fete's third week. He will lead the Symphony of the Air in a double bill, Stravinsky's "Canticum Sacrum," which marks the first time this controversial composition will be heard in the Eastern United States, and Carl Orff's "Carmina Burana." The fourth and final week's program, incidentally, has not yet been set, but an announcement should be forthcoming in a few days.

More Cigarette Users Die Says Society Survey

Rochester, N. Y., June 13 (AP) —The death rate of cigarette smokers in New York state exceeded that of non-smokers by 57 per cent, according to the results of a three-year survey by the American Cancer Society.

The survey showed that of 1,321 New Yorkers who died between January, 1952, and October, 1955, 867 had a history of regular cigarette smoking. Only 551 of these would have died during the period if their death rate equalled that of New Yorkers who never had smoked regularly, according to the report.

Lung cancer was the apparent cause in 63 of the 1,321 deaths. All but 13 of these cases were verified. Only one of the lung-cancer group had never smoked.

The overall figures of the society's survey were announced last week. The New York state figures became available yesterday.

Nine-State Study

A nine-state area was studied. The other states were California, Illinois, Iowa, Michigan, Minnesota, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Wisconsin.

For men who smoked a pack or more of cigarettes a day the death rate was 88 per cent higher than for non-smokers in the overall survey. In New York state it was only 85 per cent higher.

The 57 per cent higher rate for cigarette smokers in New York state was three per cent greater than the overall percentage of 54 per cent for the nine-state area.

The New York deaths included 240 who smoked a pack of cigarettes or more a day. This number, according to the report, would have been cut to 130 if their death rate had been the same as that of those who were not regular smokers.

1,000 Search for Girl

Detroit, June 13 (AP) — Aided by walkie-talkies and sound trucks, more than 1,000 searchers combed suburban Ecorse township today for a 6-year-old girl missing from her home since late yesterday. The child is Mary deCaussin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund deCaussin Jr., and granddaughter of a Detroit deputy fire chief. The girl was last seen playing near her backyard at 5:30 p. m. yesterday. Her mother, Gervaise, 30, missed her at 6 p. m. when she failed to come home for dinner. After telephoning neighbors without locating the child, her parents called police.

Drivers Forfeit Bail, Another Pays $25 Fine

Two drivers, arrested on traffic counts, forfeited a total of $20 bail in City Court today, another paid a $25 fine, and one case was adjourned to June 18.

Bail of $20 each was forfeited by Colleen Hutton, 19, of 330 Liberty street, Newburgh, who was arrested at 3:30 p. m. Wednesday by Officers Harold DeGraff and Anthony Turck on a charge of driving without a license, and Thomas A. Walters, 25, of 166 South street, Newburgh, arrested at 5:30 p. m. at police headquarters by the same officers on a charge of permitting unlicensed operation of a motor vehicle. The woman was arrested on Chambers street.

Chatmon Edwards, 54, of 280 North street, who was arrested April 6 on a charge of driving while intoxicated, pleaded guilty to a lesser charge of driving at an endangering speed and paid a $25 fine. The charge of driving while intoxicated was reduced to the lesser charge on motion of the district attorney's office before City Judge Raymond J. Mino. Edwards was represented by Attorney Charles Saccoman and Attorney John E. Gotelli appeared for the district attorney's office.

Edwards was arrested by Officers DeGraff and Thomas McGrane on a charge of driving while intoxicated after his car allegedly struck another on Hasbrouck avenue near Murray street on April 6.

A police report at 2:37 p. m., that date, said the Edwards car, headed south on Hasbrouck avenue, struck the car of Donald Genther, 22, of 15 DuBois street, which was parked in front of 131 Hasbrouck avenue.

The case of Joseph Salerno, 28, of 97 Main street, Rosendale, who was arrested at 7:22 a. m. today on the Boulevard by Officers Charles McCullough and George Dougherty on a charge of speeding, was adjourned until June 18.

Bill Murphy Tosses First No-Hitter in Babe Ruth League

Old Pros Set Pace

Cardinals Rocketing Along Only One Game Off the Pace

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

The St. Louis Cardinals, rocketing along while the rest of the hotshots fizzled, finally have themselves a spot in the National League's first-division—a fourth place berth that's only one game removed from the lead.

In a week's time, the Cards have won eight in a row, making up 5½ games on the leaders in a rush that's been carried by three pitchers and a couple of old pros named Stan Musial and Del Ennis.

They quit fifth place last night, defeating Philadelphia 4-0 to gain a share of fourth with the failing Phils.

CLOWN PRINCE of Baseball. That's internationally famous Al Schacht, who will help the Kingston Colonials launch the New York-New Jersey Baseball League season next Wednesday (June 19) against the Saugerties Dutchmen at Dietz Stadium.

First place Cincinnati was slugged a third time in succession by seventh place Pittsburgh, this time in a 4-3, 10-inning decision. That left the Redlegs a half-game ahead, five percentage points in front of Milwaukee and Brooklyn, deadlocked for second after the Dodgers put an end to a four-game skid with an 11-9 victory over the Braves.

The New York Giants, with all their runs unearned, defeated the Chicago Cubs 4-3 in the other NL game.

In the American League, the Chicago White Sox regained a five-game lead, defeating the second place New York Yankees 7-6 despite a four-RBI, two-homerun show by Mickey Mantle. Cleveland retained third, beating Boston 6-1. Fourth place Detroit stopped Baltimore 4-2. Kansas City and Washington split a twi-night pair, the A's winning 5-3, then losing 3-2.

Musial Sets Record

Musial and Ennis, who have batted in 18 of the Cards' 37 runs as the Redbirds put together their best winning string since they took 10 in a row in 1952, were at it again last night. Musial singled and doubled, scoring a run, while breaking the league record for consecutive games played set at 822 by Pittsburgh's Gus Suhr from 1931 to 1937.

And Ennis, batting .353 in the Card surge, walloped his fourth home run in the streak, a three-run job that bagged it for good against Robin Roberts. The Phillie veteran gave only four hits in his seven innings, but two were the 17th and 18th homers he's granted this far in a 6-8 record. Don Blasingame hit the other.

Larry Jackson, a relief pitcher gone square, won his eighth of the season with a nine-hitter. The righthander has won two in the eighth-game string, as have veteran Murry Dickson and bonus kid Lindy McDaniel.

The Dodgers, who scored only four runs in the previous four games, had a 9-1 lead after two innings as winless Gene Conley took his fourth defeat. Charlie Neal drove in the final four Brooklyn runs with a triple and home run—and they proved the clinchers as Frank Torre, Ed Mathews and Hank Aaron hit home runs in the last two frames for the Braves. Ed Roebuck, relieving Johnny Podres, needed relief himself to win his first.

200th for Mathews

Mathews' homer was his 200th in the majors, a club record. Wally Berger had hit 199 for the old Boston-Milwaukee record.

The Redlegs, who hadn't lost an extra-inning battle in five tests, finally got caught after blowing a 3-1 lead. A single by Gene Freese did it, beating reliever Tom Acker. Roy Face won it in relief. Ted Kluszewski, just off the disabled list, hit into a force out in a pinch-hit try—his first appearance with the Redlegs since April 25.

Mantle, who now has 18 home runs after hitting seven in eight games and four in his last three, was 4-for-5, throwing a late scare into the Sox with a two-run, 425-foot homer in the ninth. Walt Dropo batted in three for Chicago, with a two-run homer that tied it in the second and a single that brought across the first of two fourth inning markers that gave the Sox the lead for keeps. Hank Bauer and Bill Skowron also homered for the Yanks while Jim Rivera connected for Chicago, outhit 14-11.

Kucks Routed

Jack Harshman failed to finish, but won his second in 10 decisions with the Yankees. Johnny Kucks lost it, getting ripped hard after a delay of more than an hour between the first and second innings because of rain.

Cleveland scored five runs in the second, four of them unearned as loser Bob Porterfield uncorked an error and also balked.

Willie Mays' three-run homer tied it for the Giants in the sixth. Then he stole third in the ninth and jogged home with the winner as catcher Cal Neeman threw wild on the theft. Al Worthington won his seventh in relief.

Judy Lowe Hits 263-602 In Bowlerama League

Judy Lowe shared high scoring honors with Buster Ferraro in the Bowlerama Mixed League, firing a 602 series on games of 181, 263 and 158.

The 263 is a career high for the former teen-age sensation.

Ferraro spliced 212-226-181. Adeline Ferraro posted 466, Clayton Bruck 216-553, Laura Le May 466, Ethel Henderson 476, Jerry Oster 203-587, Rose Schatzel 531, Nell Alverson 498.

Albany Pitcher Hurls 3-Hitter

(By The Associated Press)

The Eastern League's big two—Binghamton and Schenectady—received disrespectful treatment last night.

Usually weak in the pitching department, the Albany Senators came up with a three-hit performance by Stan Willis and edged Binghamton 4-3.

At Reading, the Indians walked over Schenectady 10-1 as Dave Wegerek pitched his eighth victory. He has suffered one loss.

Syracuse broke even with Springfield in a doubleheader at Syracuse. The Chiefs won the opener 7-6 when Ed Kneuper homered with one abroad in the seventh and final inning. Kneuper homered again in the seventh in the nightcap for three runs, but the Chiefs lost 8-5.

Schenectady paces the league, a half game ahead of Binghamton.

Kiwanis Hurler Blanks Rotary, 4-0; Whiffs 12

Bill Murphy, a 13-year-old Kiwanis "rookie" pitched the Babe Ruth League's first no-hit, no-run game yesterday, blanking Rotary, 4-0, in the first game of a twi-night doubleheader at Dietz Stadium.

The only thing resembling a hit off the National Little League graduate was a scorching line drive off the bat of Warren Brown with one out in the seventh. Second baseman Billy Huber stayed with it nicely for the putout.

Murphy walked two batters and struck out 12 to gain the decision over Terry Corkery, who gave up only four blows and whiffed five. The Kiwanians wrapped up the game and their first win with a three-run rally in the second featured by George Kotrady's triple to deep right center field.

Murphy's brilliant pitching marked the second standout performance in two days of Babe Ruth League action. In Tuesday's opener, Charlie Blanschan clouted three homers, two in one inning, and Charlie Boice hit two.

Knights in Breeze

The arclighter produced an 18 to 5 romp for the Knights of Columbus over the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Bud Harder held the Vets to five hits and struck out 10, while the Caseys converted 10 hits, a dozen walks and a myriad of stolen bases, errors and passed balls into the league's top scoring feast to date. Ten runs clattered across the plate in a big first inning. The game was called at the end of five innings.

Richie Hoffman and Ray Radel pitched for the losers.

Bill McDermott led the Knights with a single and triple and Rich Whitaker had a single and double. Tommy Ashdown and Vince Smedes also had two hits.

AL Brooks Win First

Mike Ferraro, the 156th FAB Red Sox pitching ace regained his mound wizardry just in time in the American Little League.

He needed all his guile and finesse to nip Len Bovee and Doc Smith's Dodgers, 1-0, in a small fry pitching classic, striking out 14 for a new seasonal high in the American loop.

But for two successive errors by the Dodgers in the third, the game might have ended in a scoreless tie. The loss was the first in four games for the league-leading Dodgers.

National Foundation Drive Friday for Little Leagues

More than 4,000 Little Leagues throughout the United States will chip in their dimes and quarters on Flag Day, June 14, to launch the kickoff campaign to raise $1,000,000 at an early date towards the support of the newly-created Little League Foundation.

It is expected that the Little Leagues will raise one half of the goal and large corporations will subscribe the balance.

Vernon J. Kelder, district representative of Little League, says that Little League raised $50,000 on Fag Days the past two years. He urged the cooperation of all county leagues.

Mrs. Prescott Newell Wins Wiltwyck Ladies Tournament

Mrs. Prescott Newell led the Wiltwyck Country Club's Ladies Day field Wednesday, finishing two down to par in the match play against par competition.

Mrs. Sidney Pauker and Mrs. Matthew Dietschman tied for second place, four down to par. Mrs. Pauker was awarded the prize on a toss.

Wiltwyck has scheduled its annual Invitational on Wednesday, June 26. A record-breaking field representing all clubs in the mid-Hudson area is expected.

Sports Bulletin

Toledo, Ohio, June 13 (AP) — Ben Hogan withdrew from the 57th National Open golf championship today after being stricken with severe back and chest pains.

After receiving a 54-minute delay in his starting time to permit diathermy treatment, the four-time champion from Fort Worth, Tex., returned to the Inverness course, dressed and took some practice shots.

Then, obviously in great pain, he turned to officials of the U. S. Golf Assn. and said:

"I'm afraid I can't make it."

Pat and George's Retain Lead

Nip Prospects In 8 Innings, For Sixth Win

Pat and George's is giving signs it won't surrender the City Softball League lead without a real struggle.

They squeezed by Prospect Dairy, 2 to 1, yesterday in extra innings, after a superb relief stint by Joe Venuti had balked them with the bases loaded in the bottom of the seventh.

Passante went the distance for the P&Gs, yielding only two hits, for the club's sixth victory in eight starts. Bob Coisson started for Prospect Dairy and was relieved by Venuti in the seventh. Passante aided his own cause with a single and double.

Quarter Midget Races Sunday

Jo Ann Brunnhoelze, 10-year-old beauty who stole the show in the 1956 races, will be on hand for Sunday's Quarter Midget Races at Hasbrouck Park.

Annual Event Set At Hasbrouck Park

Quarter Midget racing makes its second appearance in Kingston Sunday at Hasbrouck Park when the local Junior Motor Sports Club engages Long Island in a series of eight races.

The Long Islanders made a big hit last year and attracted some 2500 onlookers. It marked the first time such an event was held here, and prompted local enthusiasts to form their own club.

Sunday's program will include time trials and then the finals. Races will be competed on a specially constructed dirt course which will be one-twentieth of a mile long.

Nine-Year Old Set

Young drivers will be chauffeuring cars that are replicas of midget racing cars. The cars are just a quarter in size of the regular ones and are propelled by one cylinder lawn mower engines. They measure approximately six feet in length and two feet in height.

The visitors will be spearheaded by nine-year old Jo Ann Brunnhoelze. The young beauty stole the crowd's heart and with her expert driving in the club's initial appearance.

The races are co-sponsored by the Recreation Department and the Kingston Patrolman's Association.. James Anner, president of the Kingston club, is in charge of the racing program.

Rosendale Wins Over Kingston in CYO Midget Loop

St. Peter's (Rosendale) rallied for five runs in the fourth to overhaul St. Peter's (Kingston), 6-5, in CYO Midget league baseball at Camp Dineen.

W. Strobl's single was the key blow in the uprising. It knocked in the tying and winning runs.

B. Harder was the losing pitcher, although he restricted only three hits. J. Einemann spaced out 10 hits and got the win. He had two shaky frames, the first and fourth, when the losers scored all their runs. Otherwise, he was tough in the clutch.

Harder and teammate Sickler socked triples. O'Leary of Rosendale and Huber of Kingston slammed doubles.

Cuban Hurler Stopped at 9

(By The Associated Press)

As it must to all pitchers, defeat finally came to rookie Luis De Leon, the Cuban whiz of the New York-Pennsylvania baseball league.

De Leon's string of nine consecutive victories was shattered last night by the Elmira Pioneers with a 2-1 triumph over the visiting Wellsville Braves.

Both De Lon and Joe Snyder, the winning hurler, whose record is now 5-2, gave up six hits each. Each yielded only one walk, but De Leon struck out three and Snyder, two.

In other games, the league-leading Corning Red Sox smashed Hornell, 10-1, at Hornell, the visiting Jamestown Falcons defeated the Olean Oilers, 9-2, and the Erie Sailors shut out the Indians, 5-0, at Batavia.

Water Demand

Helena, Mont. (AP) — "If the predicted rate of population growth continues to 1975, the average municipal utility will be called upon to furnish about 50 per cent more water than at present," says the 1957 president of the American Water Works Assn. The official, Paul Weir of Atlanta, Ga., said in a talk that more than 300 million dollars would have to be spent annually across the nation if the increasing demands are to be met.

Yonkers, June 13 (AP)—Top Deck, owned by Edward O'Dowd of Pine Brook, N. J., and driven by Stanley Dancer, finished with a rush to win the $5,500 Irvington Pace at Yonkers Raceway last night.

Coming from third position at the head of the stretch, the winner slipped through along the rail to score by a neck over Menace, handled by Frank Safford. J. H. Attorney, the early pace-setter with Jimmy Jordan at the reins, held on to be third.

Top Deck paced the mile in 2:03 3/5 and was favored at $5.90 for $2. It was the winner's second success in five starts this season.

Utica Man Seeks Ruling on Trotting License Bid

Albany, June 13 (AP)—A director of the U. S. Trotting Assn. will go to court tomorrow in an attempt to force the State Harness Racing Commissioner to grant him a horse owner's license.

Justice Roscoe Elsworth of state Supreme Court scheduled a hearing on the petition of T. Proctor Eldred, a Utica businessman, who contends that Commissioner George J. Monaghan is biased against him. NOTICE OF BOND SALE

Sealed proposals will be received and considered by the undersigned School District Clerk of Union Free School District No. 4 of the Town of Ulster, Ulster County, New York, at the Lake Katrine Schoolhouse at Lake Katrine, in the Town of Ulster, New York, (P. O. Address: Lake Katrine, New York) in said School District, at 2:00 o'clock P. M., Eastern Daylight Saving Time, on the 27th day of June, 1957, at which time and place the bids will be opened for the purchase at not less than par and accrued interest of $60,200 School District (Serial) Bonds, 1957, of said School District, of the denomination of $1,000 each, except bond numbered 1 of the denomination of $200, dated May 1, 1957, maturing $6,200 on November 1, 1957, and $6,000 on November 1 in each of the years 1958 to 1966, both inclusive, bearing interest at a rate not exceeding five per centum per annum, payable semi-annually November 1 and May 1. Principal and interest of said bonds are payable in lawful money of the United States of America at the Kingston Trust Company, in Kingston, New York. Bonds will be in bearer form with coupons attached and may be converted into fully registered bonds and will be valid and legally binding general obligations of said School District, all the taxable real property within which will be subject to the levy of ad valorem taxes to pay said bonds and interest thereon, without limitation as to rate or amount.

The State Constitution requires the School District to pledge its faith and credit for the payment of the principal of the bonds and the interest thereon and to make annual appropriations for the amounts required for the payment of such interest and the redemption of the bonds. The State Constitution also provides that if at any time the appropriating authorities fail to make the required appropriations for the annual debt service on the bonds and certain other obligations of the School District, a sufficient sum shall be set apart from the first revenues thereafter received and shall be applied for such purposes; also, that the fiscal officer of the School District may be required to set apart and apply such revenues as aforesaid at the suit of any holder of such obligations.

Each bid must be for all of said $60,200 bonds and state a single rate of interest therefor. Unless all bids are rejected, the award will be made to the bidder complying with the terms of sale and offering to purchase said bonds at the lowest rate of interest, not exceeding the rate above specified, stated in a multiple of one-quarter or one-tenth of one per centum per annum, without reference to premium, provided, however, that if two or more bidders offer to purchase said bonds at the same lowest rate of interest, then such award will be made to the bidder offering the highest premium. The right is reserved to reject any or all bids, and any bid not complying with this Notice of Sale will be rejected. Each bid must be enclosed in a sealed envelope addressed to the undersigned School District Clerk and should be marked on the outside "Proposal for Bonds" and must be accompanied with a certified or cashier's check drawn upon an incorporated bank or trust company to the order of said School District for $1,204 as a good faith deposit to secure the School District against any loss resulting from the failure of the bidder to comply with the terms of his bid. No interest will be allowed on the amount of the good faith deposit. Said bonds are issued pursuant to the Constitution and statutes of the State of New York, including among others, the Education Law and the Local Finance Law, for the original improvement and embellishment of the present school site at Neighborhood Road, in Lake Katrine, New York, by the construction thereon of a playground and recreational area, and a parking area ($54,200 and $6,000).

In the event that prior to the delivery of the bonds, the income received by private holders from bonds of the same type and character shall be taxable by the terms of any Federal income tax law, the successful bidder may, at his election, be relieved of his obligations under the contract to purchase the bonds, and in such case, the deposit accompanying his bid will be returned.

Said bonds will be delivered at New York, New York, or at such other place as may be agreed with the purchaser about July 18, 1957.

The approving opinion of Messrs. Vandewater, Sykes, Heckler & Galloway, Attorneys of New York City, will be furnished to the purchaser without cost. There will also be furnished the usual closing certificates, dated as of the date of delivery of and payment for the bonds, including a statement that there is no litigation pending, or, to the knowledge of the signers thereof, threatened, affecting the validity of the bonds.

The population of the School District is estimated to be 1800. The Debt Statement to be filed pursuant to Section 109.00 of the Local Finance Law, in connection with the sale of the bonds herein described, prepared as of June 5th, 1957, will show the full valuation of real property subject to taxation by the School District to be $14,459,338.09, its debt limit to be $1,445,933.81, and its bonded indebtedness, including the bonds herein described, to be $501,000.00. Bond anticipation notes have not been issued heretofore in anticipation of the sale of such bonds. A detailed report of essential facts will be furnished to any interested bidder upon request.

Cement Forces On Day-to-Day Working Basis

Cement mill workers in the Ulster-Greene-Columbia county areas remain on a "day-to-day" working basis pending a contract with the five companies operating in that area along the Hudson river.

Although there is "nothing official" according to a statement from the office of Audin Straub, district representative at Catskill, it has been rumored that a strike will be called if no agreement is reached by July 1.

A strike was called at cement plants in Pennsylvania in May and contracts involving workers in New York, Iowa, Georgia and Tennessee are now being sought by Locals.

In the upper Hudson river valley in Ulster, Greene and Columbia counties five Locals are involved in negotiations with companies. At North American the workers are members of Local 50; Alpha has Local 53; Lehigh has Local 129; Lone Star has Local 28 and Universal-Atlas employes are members of Local 189. Since May local workers have been working on a "day-to-day" basis, Straub said recently. That condition still exists with a possibility that if no agreement is arrived at by July 1 the workmen will be called out on strike.

Mr. Straub was not at his office today for further comment.

Three Hurt in Gun Fight

Chicago, June 13 (AP) — Two federal narcotics agents and a gunman were shot and seriously wounded early today in a wild gun fight in a suburban River Grove tavern, described by agents as a hangout for drug addicts and sellers. Some 50 policemen joined agents in the early morning battle. One agent was shot in the tavern and the second in a brief exchange of gunfire between five agents and a fleeing gunman, who was felled by agents' bullets.
